Young People's Books in Series Judith K. Rosenberg, C. Allen Nichols, 1992 This volume describes and lists series published for young people from early elementary grades through high school Fiction series from 1976 through 1990 and new titles in existing series through 1991 are included as well as nonfiction series which are limited to in print titles only Major Authors and Illustrators for Children and Young Adults Laurie Collier, Joyce Nakamura, 1993 Contains updated and revised sketches on nearly 800 of the most widely read authors and illustrators appearing in Gale s Something about the author series African Diasporas in the New and Old Worlds Klaus Benesch, Geneviève Fabre, 2004 In the humanities the term diaspora recently emerged as a promising and powerful heuristic concept It challenged traditional ways of thinking and invited reconsiderations of theoretical assumptions about the unfolding of cross cultural and multi ethnic societies about power relations frontiers and boundaries about cultural transmission communication and translation The present collection of essays by renowned writers and scholars addresses these issues and helps to ground the ongoing debate about the African diaspora in a more solid theoretical framework Part I is dedicated to a general discussion of the concept of African diaspora its origins and historical development Part II examines the complex cultural dimensions of African diasporas in relation to significant sites and figures including the modes and modalities of creative expression from the perspective of both artists writers and their audiences finally Part III focusses on the resources collections and archives and iconographies that are available today As most authors argue the African diaspora should not be seen merely as a historical phenomenon but also as an idea or ideology and an object of representation By exploring this new ground the essays assembled here provide important new insights for scholars in American and African American Studies Cultural Studies Ethnic Studies and African Studies The collection is rounded off by an annotated listing of black autobiographies Feminist Transformations and Domestic Violence Activism in Divided Berlin, 1968-2002 Jane Freeland, 2024-07-19 This is the first in depth historical study of feminist activism against domestic violence in divided Berlin between 1968 and 2002 Starting in the 1970s feminists in West and then East Berlin campaigned against domestic violence as a key issue of women s inequality They exposed the harmful gender norms that left women unprotected and vulnerable to abuse in the home and called for this to change Indeed domestic violence has been one of the issues most effectively addressed by the women s movement in Germany Since the first shelter opened in West Berlin in 1976 women s shelters have spread throughout the country and today up to 45 000

women a year turn to emergency housing in Germany with many more accessing helplines and crisis centres Situating domestic violence activism within a broader history of feminism in post war Germany Feminist Transformations traces the evolution of this movement both across political division and reunification and from grassroots campaign to established professionalised social service In doing so it brings the histories of feminism in East and West Berlin together for the first time and explores how feminism successfully changed women s rights in Germany But it also asks what popular and political support for domestic violence activism has meant for feminism and the advancement of women s rights more broadly Examining the trajectory of feminism in Germany Jane Freeland reveals the limitations of gender equality as advancements in women s rights were often built on the reassertion of patriarchal gender roles

Best Books for Children John Thomas Gillespie, Corinne J. Naden, 1990 The Writers Directory, 2013 Fiction Index for Readers 10 to 16 Vicki Anderson, 1992 Index of 8200 titles arranged under 200 specific subject headings Kirkus Children's and Young-adult Edition, 1988
