Secrets And Other Stories Signed:

A Family Secret and Other Stories Bijoya Sawian, 2014-08-05 A postman turns up with an unexpected letter one rainy afternoon in Cherrapunji a letter that will turn fourteen year old Saphira's world upside down Dalinia's life seems perfect with a successful husband beautiful children and a well appointed home But the arrival of a handsome competitor on the manicured greens of the Shillong golf course brings back a flood of unwanted memories of her troubled past Told in a simple lyrical style Bijoya Sawian's collection of ten short stories is not only an enthralling read but like her debut novel Shadow Men transports the reader to a place little known to outsiders Meghalaya Strains of love loss and longing run through all these stories whose endings are not mere shocks but revelations Both her books should be read for a better understanding of India's northeast its communities its landscape and in particular the lives of the women who live there The Secret Sharer and Other Stories (riverrun editions) Joseph Conrad, 2025-03-27 Sailing away he survived at sea then on foreign land and then by writing re living his life many times many ways in English fiction Neil Rennie from his preface to The Secret Sharer and Other Stories The stories in this selection show the intense influence of Conrad's many voyages and his varied reading He was able to dramatize his personal international experiences as he journeyed from Europe to Africa and the East while absorbing the influence of Stevenson's adventure romances and the realism of Flaubert and Maupassant An Outpost of Progress is a response to what Conrad witnessed in the Congo Youth turns to his early days at sea Amy Foster explores the strangeness and hostility of England to foreigners The Secret Sharer charts his time as a ship's captain A Smile of Fortune returns to the island of Mauritius and The Planter of Malata opens in a great colonial city in Australia Neil Rennie's preface examines the interweaving of Conrad's life and work and the development of his art The Secret Martians and Other Stories Jack Sharkey, 2016-01-11 MASTER SPY OF THE RED PLANET Jerry Delvin had a most unusual talent He could detect the flaws in any scheme almost on sight even where they had eluded the best brains in the ad agency where he worked So when the Chief of World Security told him that he had been selected as the answer to the Solar System's greatest mystery Jerry assumed that it was because of his mental agility But when he got to Mars to find out why fifteen boys had vanished from a spaceship in mid space he found out that even his quick mind needed time to pierce the maze of out of this world double dealing For Jerry had become a walking bomb and when he set himself off it would be the end of the whole puzzle of THE SECRET MARTIANS with Jerry as the first to go Jack Sharkey decided to be a writer nineteen years ago in the Fourth Grade when he realized all at once that someone wrote all those stories in the textbooks While everyone else looked forward variously to becoming firemen cowboys and trapeze artists Jack was devouring every book he could get his hands on figuring that if I put enough literature into my head some of it might overflow and come out After sixteen years of education Jack found himself teaching high school English in Chicago a worthwhile career but not what one would call zesty After a two year Army hitch and a year in advertising sublimating my urge to write things for cash Jack moved to New York determined to make a career of full time fiction writing Oddly enough it worked out and he now does nothing else He says I d like to say I do this for fulfillment or for cash or because it s my destiny however the real reason same as that expressed by Jean Kerr is that this kind of stay at home self employment lets me sleep late in the morning
