Kelly Johnson, 2025-08-16 Bobby the Bear is a curious little cub who finds himself wide awake while the rest of the forest slumbers beneath the soft glow of moonlight Snuggled in his cozy den beneath an old pine tree Bobby is restless his mind filled with fluttering thoughts and questions about the world beyond the safety of his home Despite the calming lullaby of crickets and the watchful hush of the moonlit woods Bobby can't help but wonder what secrets the nighttime forest holds The stars seem to whisper to him and the moon shines like a guardian pulling gently at his spirit With a mixture of excitement and nervous curiosity Bobby decides to step outside and discover what mysteries the night has to offer hoping that the answers to his sleeplessness lie not in dreams but in moonbeams and midnight wonder As he ventures into the silvery shimmering forest Bobby is enchanted by how different the world feels under the midnight sky The moonlight paints the trees in soft blues and silvers casting magical shadows that seem to move and speak in their own language Every sound from the distant call of a loon to the flutter of leaves becomes part of a secret nighttime symphony Bobby follows a quiet pull in his heart feeling as though the moon itself is guiding him on a special journey meant only for him In this tender magical adventure Bobby begins to realize that the night is not something to be feared or slept through but a living story waiting to be explored and he is ready to listen with open eyes ears and heart The Secret Garden Peter Karsten, 2015-10-15 The Secret Garden is a collection of various poems
