

Midnight Secrets

A person wearing a dark, hooded coat is walking away from the viewer down a narrow, cobblestone street at night. The street is shrouded in a thick, white fog or mist. A single, ornate street lamp on the right side of the street casts a warm, yellowish glow, illuminating the person and the surrounding fog. The buildings on either side of the street are dark and multi-story, with some windows visible. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and somber.

easy but it doesn't have to be complicated either. If you long for a simpler way of doing youth ministry, The Secrets of the Simple Youth Ministry may be your answer. In the vein of Pilgrim's Progress, this short allegory will take you on a journey of discovery. Follow Tanner, the main character, as he struggles through his calling and ministry. Adventure builds upon adventure as each Secret is revealed. With an unexpected twist around every corner, you will be challenged not only to evaluate your ministry but also your life. Making youth ministry simple for you is the goal of this book. Simple and time-tested principles for youth ministry rise out of the story. These principles will take you back to the heart of your walk with God and back to the heart of your ministry. With the simple worksheet section at the end of the book, you will be challenged to begin implementing these practical principles in your life and ministry today. I hope you enjoy and identify with the characters. I pray it will draw you into the arms of our Savior and release you to do His work in a simple yet effective way. British
