Second Term At Trebizon:

Second Term at Trebizon Anne Digby, 2016-01-28 It's only the start of Rebecca Mason's second term at Trebizon School and she is already caught between her two closest friends. Why is Tish trying to stop Sue from becoming the captain of the hockey team? And why is she suddenly so keen for Sue to concentrate on the music scholarship? Can Rebecca solve the mystery of Tish's strange behaviour or will the friendship be ruined forever? Routledge Revivals: Language, Gender and Childhood (1985) Carolyn Steedman, Cathy Urwin, Valerie Walkerdine, 2016-10-04 First published in 1985, this book brings together recent work on women and children from the nineteenth century to the present. The contributors explore in different ways and from different points of view the way in which issues of language have been and are still central to the history of women and their relation to domestic and educational practices. A crucial issue is the contrast between what is spoken about girls and women and what girls and women can speak about. The contributors relate this theme specifically to women's position as mothers and the education of girls and women. Routledge Revivals: History Workshop Series Various Authors, 2022-07-30 First published between 1975 and 1991, this set reissues 13 volumes that originally appeared as part of the History Workshop Series. This series of books, which grew out of the journal of the same name, advocated history from below and examined numerous often social issues from the perspectives of ordinary people. In the words of founder Raphael Samuel, the aim was to turn historical research and writing into a collaborative enterprise via public gatherings outside of a traditional academic setting that could be used to support activism and social justice as well as informing politics. Some of the topics examined in the set include mineral workers, rural radicalism and the lives and occupations of villagers in the nineteenth century, working class association, the development of left-wing workers' theatre and the changing attitudes to mass culture across the twentieth century, the changing fortunes of the East End at the turn of the century, the position of women from the nineteenth century to the present, the miners' strike of 1984-5, the social and political images of late twentieth-century London, and a three-volume analysis of the myriad facets of English patriotism. This set will be of interest to students of history, sociology, gender and politics. The Encyclopaedia of School Stories: The encyclopaedia of girls' school stories Rosemary Auchmuty, Joy Wotton, 2000 This encyclopaedia covers the history, critical reception, authors, topics and critical analyses of girls' school stories from 1876-1999. An overview of the development of the stories is covered along with their influence on authors and publishers. Modern Children's Literature Catherine Butler, Kimberly Reynolds, 2014-12-12 An established introductory textbook that provides students with a guide to developments in children's literature over time and across genres. This stimulating collection of critical essays, written by a team of subject experts, explores key British, American and Australian works from picture books and texts for younger children through to graphic novels and young adult fiction. It combines accessible close readings of children's texts with informed examinations of genres, issues and critical contexts, making it an essential practical book for students. This is an ideal core text for dedicated modules.
