Politicians And Rhetoric The Persuasive Power Of Metaphor:

Politicians and Rhetoric J. Charteris-Black, 2011-10-26 This analysis of the rhetoric of nine successfully persuasive politicians explains how their use of language created credible and consistent stories about themselves and the social world they inhabit It explores their use of metaphors their myths and how language analysis helps us to understand how politicians are able to persuade

Politicians and Rhetoric Jonathan Charteris-Black, 2005-03-02 Each chapter of this book analyzes the rhetoric of speeches by major American and British politicians to show how metaphor is used to create political myths of monsters villains and heroic leaders Metaphors are shown to interact with other figures of speech to communicate subliminal meanings by drawing on the unconscious emotional association of words An innovative study for students and researchers in discourse analysis political communication journalism and media studies

Prime Ministers and Rhetorical Governance D. Grube, 2015-12-04 Prime Ministers in Westminster style democracies are forever talking to and communicating with the electorate This ground breaking book explores and analyses the uses of political rhetoric by Prime Ministers to explore patterns of communication and shows that the manner in which they talk to the electorate is central to day to day governance

Analysing Political Speeches Jonathan Charteris-Black, 2018-08-24 Exploring speeches by public figures such as Emma Watson Tony Blair Donald Trump Julia Gillard and Lady Gaga this engaging textbook explains the ways in which political speeches can be analysed It examines the role of language in speeches and how it can be used to challenge or reinforce prevailing social cultural and political attitudes Each chapter introduces a particular discourse approach and then applies this in a model analysis of a passage of text The chosen texts concern issues of social cultural and political importance that address topics of significant importance to the audience to which they were delivered Students are encouraged to engage with the text and consider how approaches to text analysis such as cohesion context analysis and metaphor analysis may be adapted to provide a more critical perspective This text will be essential reading for students of English language linguistics communication studies and politics on critical discourse and discourse analysis modules

Speaking the Nation Anandita Bajpai, 2018-07-04 Untangling the logical lexical and semantic patterns of the multiple official speeches of Indian prime ministers Speaking the Nation gauges how the Indian state has been projected by different governments in different times in the face of challenges from internal and external actors that put pressure on its leaders to safeguard their status as legitimate elites in power It analyses how Indian nationhood is consistently reshaped and reaffirmed by invoking its secular ethos and practice as well as the experience of market liberalization The book calls for serious engagement with political oratory in India A close reading of speeches since 1991 from Narasimha Rao to Narendra Modi it captures how through these crosscutting topics the prominent authors of the nation and the vanguards of the state speak India into being

Metaphor L. David Ritchie, 2013-01-10 Metaphor a form of figurative language in which one thing or idea is expressed in terms of another is becoming an increasingly popular area of study as it is relevant to the work of semanticists pragmatists discourse analysts and also those working at the interface of language and literature and in other disciplines such as philosophy and psychology This book provides a summary critique and comparison of the most important theories on how metaphors are used and understood drawing on research from linguistics psychology and other disciplines In order to ground the discussion in actual language use the book uses examples from discourse including casual conversations political speeches literature humor religion and science Written in a non technical style the book includes clear definitions examples discussion questions and a glossary making it ideal for graduate level seminars

Languages in Africa Elizabeth C. Zsiga,One Tlale Boyer,Ruth Kramer,2014 In many African communities languages are nested in concentric circles Commonly a speaker s mother tongue is used by a small group often it is not written or used in school and may be endangered Surrounding that language is a national language an indigenous language that is more widely used is written and may be used in school Then comes an international language such as English or French which is a legacy of colonialism this language will carry high prestige be used in higher education as a prospective means of mobility and yet will not be well known The essays in this volume examine the phenomenon of multilingualism through case studies that cover the whole continent from South Africa to Cote d Ivoire to Kenya While contributors find that many languages are dying that indigenous languages are devalued even by their own speakers and that schools are failing to effectively teach the children who attend them they also find that local education programs that use the mother tongue can work language policies can be changed by informed linguistic expertise and linguistic creativity thrives

The Routledge Handbook of Language and Persuasion Jeanne Fahnestock,Randy Allen Harris,2022-09-30 This handbook provides a wide ranging authoritative and cutting edge overview of language and persuasion Featuring a range of international contributors the handbook outlines the basic materials of linguistic persuasion sound words syntax and discourse and the rhetorical basics that they enable such as appeals argument schemes arrangement strategies and accommodation devices After a comprehensive introduction that brings together the elements of linguistics and the vectors of rhetoric the handbook is divided into six parts Part I covers the basic rhetorical appeals to character the emotions argument schemes and types of issues that constitute persuasion Part II covers the enduring effects of persuasive language from humor to polarization while a special group of chapters in Part III examines figures of speech and their rhetorical uses In Part IV contributors focus on different fields and genres of argument as entry points for research into conventions of arguing Part V examines the evolutionary and developmental roots of persuasive language and Part VI highlights new computational methods of language analysis This handbook is essential reading for those researching and studying persuasive language in the fields of linguistics rhetoric argumentation communication discourse studies political science psychology digital studies mass media and journalism

Economie Et Langue André Cyr,2005 Handbuch Sprache und Politik Thomas Niehr,Jörg Kilian,Martin Wengeler,2017 Die sprachwissenschaftliche Forschung zur Sprache in der Politik ist angetreten den politischen Sprachgebrauch und variet ten bzw registerspezifische Erscheinungsformen der politischen Sprache mit Methoden der deskriptiven Linguistik zu analysieren und zu beschreiben. Diese Analysen und Beschreibungen fanden erst vor gut 50 Jahren Anerkennung auch als Teilgebiet der Sprachwissenschaft. Seit 1996 hat sich in Deutschland der Name Politolinguistik dafür eingebürgert. Das vorliegende Handbuch sichtet die Vielzahl der politolinguistischen Ansätze, Methoden und Befunde und ordnet sie in 60 thematischen Beiträgen und bereitet sie für die Lehre sowie für die weitere Forschung auf dem aktuellen Stand auf.

Use of Metaphors by Jawaharlal Nehru Rakesh Gupta, 2007
This is a multidisciplinary book traversing the fields of politics, philosophy and literature. It examines Nehru's contribution to communication as a leader in terms of the language that he spoke and wrote in terms of rhetoric. In rhetoric, the book's axis is the role of metaphors. It is a book that attempts to go beyond the paradigm of Nehru's emphasis on modernity and change. In this sense, Nehru's work and writings are closer to Marx and Foucault for they too can be worked upon to go beyond what they are generally perceived to be. This book attempts to show how it is not possible to appropriate Nehru either by the right of the left wing and that how Nehru's search for identity is akin to the search that some of the inmates of Auschwitz attempted after their survival and release. This book is a plea to inspire further research on Nehru in terms of semiotics. Such an exercise has not been attempted hitherto.

Multimodal Approaches to Chinese-English Translation and Interpreting Meifang Zhang, Dezheng (William) Feng, 2020-12-29
Nowadays discourse analysis deals with not only texts but also paratexts and images, so do translation and interpreting studies. Therefore, the concept of multimodality has become an increasingly important topic in the subject areas of linguistics, discourse analysis and translation studies. However, up to now, not much research has been done systematically on multimodal factors in translation and interpreting and even less in exploring research models or methodologies for multimodal analysis in translation and interpreting. This book aims to introduce and apply different theories of the multimodal discourse analysis to the study of translations with case studies on Chinese classics such as the Monkey King, Mulan and The Art of War, as well as on interpretations of up-to-date issues including the Chinese Belt and Road Initiatives and Macao tourism. The chapters reflect the first attempts to apply multimodal approaches to translation and interpreting with a special focus on Chinese-English translations and interpreting. They provide new understandings of transformations in the multimodal translation process and useful reference models for researchers who are interested in doing research of a similar kind, especially for those who are interested in looking into translations related to Chinese language, literature and culture.

The Tabloid Terrorist Alexander Spencer, 2010-04-14
Alexander Spencer successfully establishes constructivist terrorism research as nothing less than an alternative to traditional and critical terrorism studies. Professor Christopher Daase, Chair for International Organisations, Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany.

Discourse and Communication Ma Luisa Blanco Gómez, Juana I. Marín Arrese, 2010
The present volume deals with different issues related to discourse and communication from a cognitive and functional perspective. Some of the chapters focus on analysing different types of text such as advertisements, conversation tales and songs and multimodal texts. Others present a more theoretical approach to key aspects in the field like syntax politeness subjectivity and intersubjectivity
