Politics And Rhetoric Of Scientific Method:

The Politics and Rhetoric of Scientific Method J. Schuster, R.R. Yeo, 2012-12-06 The institutionalization of History and Philosophy of Science as a distinct field of scholarly endeavour began comparatively early though not always under that name in the Australasian region An initial lecturing appointment was made at the University of Melbourne immediately after the Second World War in 1946 and other appointments followed as the subject underwent an expansion during the 1950s and 1960s similar to that which took place in other parts of the world Today there are major Departments at the University of Melbourne the University of New South Wales and the University of Wollongong and smaller groups active in many other parts of Australia and in New Zealand Australasian Studies in History and Philosophy of Science aims to provide a distinctive publication outlet for Australian and New Zealand scholars working in the general area of history philosophy and social studies of science Each volume comprises a group of essays on a connected theme edited by an Australian or a New Zealander with special expertise in that particular area Papers address general issues however rather than local ones parochial topics are avoided Further more though in each volume a majority of the contributors is from Australia or New Zealand contributions from elsewhere are by no means ruled out Quite the reverse in fact they are actively encouraged wherever appropriate to the balance of the volume in question

The SAGE Handbook of Research Methods in Political Science and International Relations Luigi Curini, Robert Franzese, 2020-04-09 The SAGE Handbook of Research Methods in Political Science and International Relations offers a comprehensive overview of research processes in social science from the ideation and design of research projects through the construction of theoretical arguments to conceptualization measurement data collection and quantitative qualitative empirical analysis expositing through 65 major new contributions from leading international methodologists Each chapter surveys builds upon and extends the modern state of the art in its area Following through its six part organization undergraduate and graduate students researchers and practicing academics will be guided through the design methods and analysis of issues in Political Science and International Relations Part One Formulating Good Research Questions Designing Good Research Projects Part Two Methods of Theoretical Argumentation Part Three Conceptualization Measurement Part Four Large Scale Data Collection Representation Methods Part Five Quantitative Empirical Methods Part Six Qualitative Mixed Methods

Qualitative Research Methods in Argumentation Studies Corina Andone, Marianne Doury, Sara Greco, Kati Hannken-Illjes, Menno Reijven, 2025-12-11 This book explores the core principles related theories and conventions of qualitative research methods within the field of argumentation studies In each chapter contributors identify and contextualize various issues that a qualitative researcher in Argumentation is likely to encounter and offer clear solutions In doing so the book provides a set of guidelines instruments and recommendations that enable readers to effectively conduct research and analyze arguments Furthermore the book presents discussions of the ethics validity and reliability of qualitative research methods as well as the intersections between qualitative and quantitative approaches Looking to the future chapters explore what the field could learn from other disciplines and how research could better integrate alternative data sources Providing a detailed outline of qualitative data analysis and interpretation this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of argumentation studies communication studies rhetoric and linguistics The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Rhetorical Audience Studies and Reception of Rhetoric Jens E. Kjeldsen, 2017-11-10 This book examines the reception of rhetoric and the rhetoric of reception By considering salient rhetorical traits of rhetorical utterances and texts seen in context and relating this to different kinds of reception and or audience use and negotiation the authors explore the connections between rhetoric and reception In our time new media and new forms of communication make it harder to distinguish between speaker and audience The active involvement of users and audiences is more important than ever before This project is based on the premise that rhetorical research should reconsider the understanding conceptualization and examination of the rhetorical audience From mostly understanding audiences as theoretical constructions that are examined textually and speculatively the contributors give more attention to empirical explorations of actual audiences and users The book will provide readers with new knowledge on the workings of rhetoric as well as illustrative and guiding examples of new methods of rhetorical studies
