Politics Of Belonging Political Change In Sabah And Sarawak:

The Politics of Belonging Margaret Clark Roff, 1974 Asian Forms of the Nation Stein Tonnesson, Hans Antlov, 2013-10-23 The general tendency among theorists in nationalism and national identity has been to assume that the modernization process in Asia and Africa is a kind of distorted reflection of a Western precedent Asian forms of the nation have rarely been seen as independent alternative models Among today's leading theoreticians there is a growing tendency to take Asia seriously and to include Asian examples in the general discussion The aim of the present collection is to build on and reinforce this tendency It does not postulate any specifically Asian form of the nation as opposed to a Western one Rather it seeks to demonstrate that in Asia as well as in Europe each nation forms a unique amalgam which can be compared fruitfully with others History culture and geography have posed various kinds of limits to what can be imagined as Benedict Anderson puts it The relationship between geographical space and national construction is explored in depth here

Malaysian Politics Under Mahathir Diane K. Mauzy, R. S. Milne, 2002-01-22 A hard hitting and readable book which examines Mahathir's character his ideas and policies and relates them to the social economic and political setting inside Malaysia Up until recently high rates of economic growth and a striking reduction in poverty have been the hallmarks of this vibrant Tiger economy Mahathir's success has now been placed in jeopardy by the recent economic crisis and his rule is coming under hostile scrutiny As one of the most controversial political figures in South east Asia Mahathir's success at managing ethnic tensions policies of industrialization modernization and foreign policy are explored as are his grandiose projects his human rights record and approach to corruption Milne and Mauzy leading authors in this field assess Mahathir's rule within this context as well as the abrupt dismissal from office arrest and trial of Anwar Ibrahim Mahathir's deputy in late 1998

Identity Politics and Elections in Malaysia and Indonesia Karolina Prasad, 2015-12-14 In recent social research ethnicity has mostly been used as an explanatory variable It was only after it was agreed that ethnicity in itself is subject to change were the questions of how and why it changes possible to answer This multiplicity of ethnic identities requires that we think of each society as one with multiple ethnic dimensions of which any can become activated in the process of political competition and sometimes several of them within a short period of time Focusing on Malaysia and Indonesia this book traces the variations of ethnic identity by looking at electoral strategies in two sub national units It shows that ethnic identities are subject to change induced by calculated moves by political entrepreneurs who use identities as tools to maximize their chances of winning elections or expanding support base and highlights how political institutions play an enormous role in shaping the modes and dynamics of these ethno political manipulations The book suggests that in societies where ethnic identities are activated in politics instead of analysing politics with ethnic distribution as an independent variable ethnic distribution can be taken as the dependent variable with political institutions being the explanatory one It examines the problems of voters behaviour and parties and candidates strategy in a polity that is to a significant extent
