British Jacobin Politics, Desires, and Aftermaths James Epstein, David Karr, 2021-01-31 This book explores the hopes desires and imagined futures that characterized British radicalism in the 1790s and the resurfacing of this sense of possibility in the following decades The articulation of Jacobin sentiments reflected the emotional investments of men and women inspired by the French Revolution and committed to political transformation The authors emphasize the performative aspects of political culture and the spaces in which mobilization and expression occurred including the club room tavern coffeehouse street outdoor meeting theater chapel courtroom prison and convict ship America imagined as a site of republican citizenship and New South Wales experienced as a space of political exile widened the scope of radical dreaming Part 1 focuses on the political culture forged under the shifting influence of the French Revolution Part 2 explores the afterlives of British Jacobinism in the year 1817 in early Chartist memorialization of the Scottish martyrs of 1794 and in the writings of E P Thompson The relationship between popular radicals and the Romantics is a theme pursued in several chapters a dialogue is sustained across the disciplinary boundaries of British history and literary studies The volume captures the revolutionary decade s effervescent yearning and its unruly persistence in later years Identity and Capitalism

Marie Moran,2014-11-13 This is a splendid book that dispels myths about identity and presents a cultural materialist case for the study of such keywords and their preoccupations under the hegemony of neoliberal capitalism Professor Jim McGuigan Loughborough University Identity particularly as it is elaborated in the associated categories of personal and social identity is a relatively novel concept in western thought politics and culture The explosion of interest in the notion of identity across popular political and academic domains of practice since the 1960s does not represent the simple popularisation of an older term as is widely assumed but rather the invention of an idea Identity and Capitalism explores the emergence and evolution of the idea of identity in the cultural political and social contexts of contemporary capitalist societies Against the common supposition that identity always mattered this book shows that what we now think of routinely as personal identity actually only emerged with the explosion of consumption in the late twentieth century It also makes the case that what we now think of as different social and political identities only came to be framed as such with the emergence of identity politics and new social movements in the political landscapes of capitalist societies in the 60s and 70s Marie Moran provides an important new exploration of the articulation of the idea of identity to the social logic of capitalism from the organised capitalism of the mid twentieth century up to and including the neoliberal capitalism that prevails today Drawing on the work of Raymond Williams the cultural materialist approach developed here provides an original means of addressing the political debates about the value of identity in contemporary capitalist societies Handbook of the Politics of Labour, Work and Employment

Gregor Gall,2019 Providing a thorough overview of the political nature and dynamics of the world of work labour and employment this timely Handbook draws together an interdisciplinary range of top contributors to explore the interdependent relationship between politics and labour work and employment The Handbook explores the purpose roles rights and powers of employers and management workers and unions states and governments in the age of globalised neo liberalism History After Hobsbawm John Arnold,Matthew Hilton,Jan Rüger,2018 What does it mean and what might it yet come to mean to write history in the twenty first century History After Hobsbawm brings together leading historians from across the globe to ask what being an historian should mean in their particular fields of study Taking their cue from one of the previous century s greatest historians Eric Hobsbawm and his interests across many periods and places the essays approach their subjects with an underlying sense of what role an historian might seek to play and attempt to help twenty first century society understand how we got here They present new work in their sub fields but also point to how their specialisms are developing how they might further grow in the future and how different areas of focus might speak to the larger challenges of history both for the discipline itself and for its relationship to other fields of academic inquiry Like Hobsbawn the authors in this collection know that history matters They speak to both the past and the present and in so doing introduce some of the most exciting new lines of research in a broad array of subjects from the medieval period to the present The Cinema of John Sayles Mark Bould, 2009 Through discussion of films such as Return of the Secaucus 7 The Brother from Another Planet Matewan and Sunshine State this study uncovers themes of racial and sexual otherness capitalist excess and the erosion of community in the work of John Sayles Because it is My Name Nada Zeineddine, 1991 Profiles and Critiques in Social Theory Anthony Giddens, Fred Reinhard Dallmayr, 1982 The Nation, 1884 Corporate Power in Global Agrifood Governance Jennifer Clapp, Doris A.
