Ending Homelessness? Allen, Mike, Benjaminsen, Lars, 2020-02-26 Homelessness is on the increase in most European states and remains at stubbornly high levels across developed nations This is despite increased policy attention economic provision and the implementation of strategies that have promised to stop homelessness in its tracks rather than simply manage the crisis Providing an in depth exploration of the experiences of Ireland Denmark and Finland in their various initiatives designed to end homelessness this book presents an authoritative comparative account of policies and strategies that have worked along with an exposition of those that have not Making an invaluable and timely contribution to the current debate it provides essential policy lessons for the multiple jurisdictions seeking to successfully bring homelessness to an end

Using Evidence to End Homelessness Lígia Teixeira, James Cartwright, 2020-04-29 Available open access under CC BY NC license Homelessness is unequivocally devastating In the UK people affected by homelessness are ten times more likely to die than their peers in the general population yet we still miss important opportunities to adequately address the issue The Centre for Homelessness Impact brings together this urgent book gathering the insights and experiences of leaders in government academia and the third sector to present new evidence based strategies to end homelessness Demonstrating why and how a new movement is needed that embraces data and evidence as integral to ending homelessness effectively this book provides crucial methods to underpin future policy practice and funding decisions

The Routledge Handbook of Global Perspectives on Homelessness, Law & Policy Chris Bevan, 2024-06-06 This handbook provides a comprehensive global survey and assessment of the law and policy relating to homelessness prevention Homelessness is regarded internationally as one of the most pressing issues facing humanity and one of the greatest social challenges of our times This has been further amplified as a result of the Covid 19 pandemic Across the globe there is an enormous divergence in both experiences of and responses to homelessness from governments and state actors This handbook examines how different jurisdictions from across all five continents of the world have encountered framed and responded to homelessness Written by expert scholars and leaders in their field the book engages in a multidisciplinary and comparative analysis of homelessness as an issue of acute social concern Understandings of homelessness are geographically culturally and historically situated making analysis of each jurisdiction s approach by a national expert deeply insightful The collection examines legal and extra legal policy interventions targeted at reducing or preventing homelessness from across the globe Drawing on diverse perspectives differing cultures and welfare regimes it thus constitutes a timely evaluation of current approaches to homelessness internationally This book will appeal to students and scholars of homelessness sociology social policy anthropology and urban sociology as well as international and national policymakers Permacrisis and the Policy Continuum in the UK Anémone Kober-Smith, Anne Beauvallet, 2025-11-28 This book examines the UK s enduring permacrisis austerity policies Brexit climate change inflation and the rising cost of living through the lens of the policy response to the COVID 19 pandemic as part of a policy continuum The book demonstrates that the policy continuum cannot be considered as a mere attempt to tackle a range of social and economic issues but also as contributing to forging the permacrisis sui generis It concludes that the government s policy responses before during and after the pandemic presented various flaws in governance leadership and execution constituting a crucial part of the permacrisis in the UK Evidencing this through its assessment of policy outcomes in a number of key public policy fields such as mental health care and education the book explores the impact of the pandemic on wide ranging and long term inequalities and vulnerable populations This book is of key interest to scholars and students of British politics policy studies and more broadly sociology and social policy

Homeless Advocacy and the Rhetorical Construction of the Civic Home Melanie Loehwing, 2018-10-30 Homeless assistance has frequently adhered to the three hots and a cot model which prioritizes immediate material needs but may fail to address the political and social exclusion of people experiencing homelessness In this study Loehwing reconsiders typical characterizations of homelessness citizenship and democratic community through unconventional approaches to homeless advocacy and assistance While conventional homeless advocacy rhetoric establishes the urgency of homeless suffering it also implicitly invites housed publics to understand homelessness as a state of abnormality that destines the individuals suffering it to life outside the civic body In contrast Loehwing focuses on atypical models of homeless advocacy the meal sharing initiatives of Food Not Bombs the international competition of the Homeless World Cup and the annual Homeless Persons Memorial Day campaign She argues that these modes of unconventional homeless advocacy provide rhetorical exemplars of a type of inclusive and empowering civic discourse that is missing from conventional homeless advocacy and may be indispensable for overcoming homeless marginalization and exclusion in contemporary democratic culture Loehwing s interrogation of homeless advocacy rhetorics demonstrates how discursive practices shape democratic culture and how they may provide a potential civic remedy to the harms of disenfranchisement discrimination and displacement This book will be welcomed by scholars whose work focuses on the intersections of democratic theory and rhetorical and civic studies as well as by homelessness advocacy groups

Political Affairs Earl Browder, 1993 A theoretical and political magazine of scientific socialism

Homelessness Padraig O'Malley, 1992 The specter of homelessness is a frightening presence in the lives of many Americans To date there are an estimated three million homeless in the United States most of them children women veterans the elderly and the mentally ill But there are also millions of people who are separated from homelessness by only a very thin line a line that could instantly be crossed as the result of accident family illness loss of a job or death of a spouse This special issue of the New England Journal of Public Policy addresses the particular needs and concerns of homeless people in the six New England states Reflecting the latest scholarship and social policy more than sixty contributors among them public service professionals advocacy group members policy makers theorists and researchers offer their thoughts an expertise To their ideas and insights are added the poems and prose writings of some of the homeless themselves Together these pieces make a vital contribution toward our understanding of homelessness and provide a framework for creating wise policy designed to protect the least fortunate in our society

Regime Politics Clarence Nathan Stone, 1989 From the end of Georgia's white primary in 1946 to the present Atlanta has been a community of growing black electoral strength and stable white economic power Yet the ballot box and investment money never became opposing weapons in a battle for domination Instead Atlanta experienced the emergence and evolution of a biracial coalition Although beset by changing conditions and significant cost pressures this coalition has remained intact At critical junctures forces of cooperation overcame antagonisms of race and ideology While retaining a critical distance from rational choice theory author Clarence Stone finds the problem of collective action to be centrally important The urban condition in America is one of weak and diffuse authority and this situation favors any group that can act cohesively and control a substantial body of resources Those endowed with a capacity to promote cooperation can attract allies and overcome oppositional forces On the negative side of the political ledger Atlanta's style of civic cooperation is achieved at a cost Despite an ambitious program of physical redevelopment the city is second only to Newark New Jersey in the poverty rate Social problems conflict of interest issues and inattention to the production potential of a large lower class bespeak a regime unable to address a wide range of human needs No simple matter of elite domination it is a matter of governing arrangements built out of selective incentives and inside deal making such arrangements can serve only limited purposes The capacity of urban regimes to bring about elaborate forms of physical redevelopment should not blind us to their incapacity to address deeply rooted social problems Stone takes the historical approach seriously The flow of events enables us to see how some groups deploy their resource advantages to fashion governing arrangements to their liking But no one enjoys a completely free hand some arrangements are more workable than others Stone s theory minded analysis of key events enables us to ask why and what else might be done Regime Politics offers readers a political history of postwar Atlanta and an elegant innovative and incisive conceptual framework destined to influence the way urban politics is studied

Peacebuilding for Adolescents Linda Rennie Forcey,Ian M. Harris,1999 Relying largely on the work of peace and conflict resolution scholars from many disciplines Peacebuilding for Adolescents presents proactive strategies for educators and community leaders In order to deter adolescent violence educators have been responding to increasing levels of school violence by severely punishing aggressive children and politicians have been clamoring for tougher criminal justice measures to deter youth from crime The authors in this book argue instead for a more humane response by teaching young people to value peace to learn to manage their own conflicts and to live more peacefully They take a broad view that ranges over three strategic levels of analysis personal school and community They argue for the promotion of a culture of nonviolence in the schools to help create what Dr Martin Luther King Jr called the beloved community Proceedings of ...
