George MacDonald's Challenging Theology of the Atonement, Suffering, and Death Miho Yamaguchi, 2007-06

This book sheds light on the challenging theology of nineteenth century Scottish writer George MacDonald concerning the true meaning of the Atonement the purpose of trials and suffering the nature of the unpardonable sin hope for growth and death Under consideration is Thomas Hooker's Poor Doubting Christian Drawn unto Christ on the redemption of Joan Drake and its influence on MacDonald's Wingfold trilogy MacDonald's version of the Wandering Jew MacDonald's interpretation of Coleridge's The Rime of the Ancient Mariner and Dante's Divine Comedy and similarities and differences between the theological ideas of MacDonald C S Lewis Elizabeth Prentiss and Shusaku Endo Metzler Lexikon amerikanischer Autoren Bernd Engler, Kurt Müller, 2017-02-18 Vielfalt und Multikulturalität Das Lexikon zeigt die US-amerikanische Literatur in 350 Porträts repräsentativer Autorinnen und Autoren und ihrer Werke Dabei liefert es einen Überblick über die außergewöhnlich vielfältige Literatur der Vereinigten Staaten von der Kolonialzeit bis zur unmittelbaren Gegenwart The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English Dominic Head, 2006-01-26 This illustrated and fully updated Third Edition of The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English is the most authoritative and international survey of world literature in English available The Guide covers everything from Old English to contemporary writing from all over the English speaking world There are entries on writers from Britain and Ireland the USA Canada India Africa South Africa New Zealand the South Pacific and Australia as well as on many important poems novels literary journals and plays This new edition has been brought completely up to date with more than 280 new author entries most of them for living authors The general reader will find it fascinating to browse and to discover many new writers and works while students will find it an invaluable resource for daily use This is a unique work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without Resurrection, Immortality, and Eternal Life in Intertestamental Judaism George W. E. Nickelsburg, 1972 Salvation in New England Phyllis M. Jones, Nicholas R. Jones, 2011-10-26 The sermon as crafted by the early New England preachers was the most prominent literary form of its day yet the earliest Puritan texts have as a rule been available only in rare book collections This anthology of sermons of the first generation of preachers fills a serious gap in American literature The preachers collected here the most widely published of their time were among the eighty or more who emigrated to Massachusetts Bay during the 1630s They are John Cotton of Boston Thomas Shepard of Cambridge and Thomas Hooker of Hartford the three foremost lights of the western churches and two eminent colleagues Peter Bulkeley of Concord and John Davenport first of New Haven and later of Boston The selections are chosen to be representative of the lengthy works from which they are drawn to reflect the major concerns and styles of the preachers work as a whole and to demonstrate the genre of the sermon as developed by the early American Puritans Not only does this anthology represent an important contribution to literary history but the sermons also illustrate a doctrine uniquely elaborated in this period a consistent and emphatic narrative mythlike in its repetition and heroics of the progress of the soul from a state of nature to a state of salvation This theme may be seen as a three stage development although individual sermons may vary These stages preparation vocation and regeneration determine the order of the selections The editors introductory material supplies a comprehensive and thorough discussion of the early New England sermons concentrating on their role history structure style and subject matter A separate essay on the texts of the sermons describes the relationship between the early printed versions and their form as delivered in the pulpit The introduction preceding each selection presents original research on the historical circumstances of the preaching and publication of the work from which the sermon is drawn The editors have also provided brief biographies of the preachers represented here an annotated list of recommended background reading and the most exhaustive checklist available of authoritative editions of the sermons of these five preachers This book will be useful to colonial specialists as well as to students of early American literature religion and history The texts are critically edited for readability with modernized spelling and annotations of unfamiliar phrases and allusions
