Random Notes of Boston (Classic Reprint) Henry P. Dowst, 2016-10-13 Excerpt from Random Notes of Boston A famous illustrator of cities obsessed perhaps by the splendors of an older world not long ago denied Boston any title to the picturesque The illustrator of this book comes pleasantly to the rescue with tangible evidence here laid before all who care to consider it in the form of drawings made with a keen appreciation not alone of form and line but of the atmosphere of his subject About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www forgottenbooks com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve Random Notes of Boston John Albert Seaford, Henry Payson Dowst, 2015-11-18 This the state of such historical works work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Business of the Heart John Corrigan, 2023-04-28 The Businessmen's Revival was a religious revival that unfolded in the wake of the 1857 market crash among white middle class Protestants Delving into the religious history of Boston in the 1850s John Corrigan gives an imaginative and wide ranging interpretive study of the revival s significance He uses it as a focal point for addressing a spectacular range of phenomena in American culture the ecclesiastical and business history of Boston gender roles and family life the history of the theater and public spectacle education boyculture and especially ideas about emotion during this period This vividly written narrative recovers the emotional experiences of individuals from a wide array of little used sources including diaries correspondence public records and other materials From these sources Corrigan discovers that for these Protestants the expression of emotion was a matter of transactions They saw emotion as a commodity and conceptualized relations between people and between individuals and God as transactions of emotion governed by contract Religion became a business relation with God with prayer as its legal tender Entering this relationship they were conducting the business of the heart This innovative study shows that the revival with its commodification of emotional experience became an occasion for white Protestants to underscore differences between themselves and others The display of emotion was a primary indicator of membership in the Protestant majority as much as language skin color or dress style As Corrigan unravels the significance of these culturally constructed standards for emotional life his book makes an important contribution to recent efforts to explore the links between religion and emotion and is an important new chapter in the history of religion The Businessmen's Revival was a religious revival that unfolded in the wake of the 1857 market crash among white middle class Protestants Delving into the religious history of Boston in the 1850s John Corrigan gives an imaginative and wide ranging in

Tawa, 1991-04-09 In the years following the Civil War a tradition of American art music arose that has now come to be neglected and almost ignored This work studies that period of music that preceded Copland Sessions and Thomson by focusing on a number of its important composers as well as the society that produced them John Knowles Paine George Chadwick Edward MacDowell Horatio Parker Arthur Foote and Amy Beach all achieved national and international reputations for the high quality of their compositions which included songs keyboard pieces chamber works oratorios concertos symphonies and operas But with the great changes of the 1920s music critics and historians either flatly dismissed these artists as mediocre or completely ignored them Author Nicholas Tawa fully details the world of these undervalued composers offering a portrait of American cultural life during the latter part of the nineteenth century the place of art composers within their society and the nature of the music created in response to the mandates of the time The book begins with the chapters that explore post Civil War society and music s relationship to it Among the topics discussed are the nature of the musical public American promoters of native music performance of American art music and artistic frames of reference Tawa then devotes a series of chapters to the composers themselves considering the styles and principal features of each one s work specific groups of compositions and what artistry meant to the composers The study concludes with an evaluation of the composers and their musical legacy and features an appendix of musical examples Students in American music and American studies courses will find this work to be a useful resource and public and academic libraries will consider it a valuable addition to their collections Boot and Shoe Recorder .1894 Bulletin of Bibliography & Magazine Notes ,1897 The Maine Historical and Genealogical Recorder Stephen American Druggist and Pharmaceutical Record, 1894 Marion Watson.1898 Annual Report of the Society of American Taxidermists Society of American Taxidermists, 1884 The Canadian Horticulturist ,1885
