Carlin,Garrett M. Graff,2018-10-16 The inside story of how America s enemies launched a cyber war against us and how we ve learned to fight back With each passing year the internet linked attacks on America s interests have grown in both frequency and severity Overmatched by our military countries like North Korea China Iran and Russia have found us vulnerable in cyberspace The Code War is upon us In this dramatic book former Assistant Attorney General John P Carlin takes readers to the front lines of a global but little understood fight as the Justice Department and the FBI chases down hackers online terrorist recruiters and spies Today as our entire economy goes digital from banking to manufacturing to transportation the potential targets for our enemies multiply This firsthand account is both a remarkable untold story and a warning of dangers yet to come      Box Office ,1952      Dangerous Fictions Lyta Gold,2024-10-29 Honorable Mention for the Pop Culture Association Awards In a political moment when social panics over literature are at their peak Dangerous Fictions is a mind expanding treatise on the nature of fictional stories as cultural battlegrounds for power Fictional stories have long held an uncanny power over hearts and minds especially those of young people In Dangerous Fictions Lyta Gold traces arguments both historical and contemporary that have labeled fiction as dark immoral frightening or poisonous Within each she asks How dangerous is fiction really And what about it provokes waves of moral panic and even censorship Gold argues that any panic about art is largely a disguised panic about power There have been versions of these same fights over fiction for centuries By exposing fiction as a social danger and a battleground of immediate public concern we can see what each side really wants the right to shape the future of a world deeply in flux and a distraction from more pressing material concerns about money access and the hard work of politics From novels about people driven insane by reading novels to copaganda TV shows that influence how viewers regard the police Gold uses her signature wit research and fearless commentary to point readers toward a more substantial question Fiction may be dangerous to us but aren't we also dangerous to it      Media/Society David Croteau,William Hoynes,Clayton Childress,2025-05-06 Media Society Technology Industries Content and Users provides a framework to help students understand the relationship between media and society while developing skills to critically evaluate both conventional wisdom and one's own assumptions about the social role of media The Eighth Edition retains its basic sociological framework but has been thoughtfully streamlined in length while still including additional discussions of new studies and up to date material about a rapidly changing media landscape With updated research the latest industry data and current examples from popular media this edition helps illustrate enduring themes in the sociology of media      The Myth of Colorblindness Sarah E. Turner,Sarah Nilsen,2019-09-28 This book explores representations of race and ethnicity in contemporary cinema and the ways in which these depictions all too often promulgate an important racial ideology the myth of colorblindness Colorblindness is a discursive framework employed by mainstream neoliberal media to celebrate a multicultural society while simultaneously disregarding its systemic and institutionalized racism This collection is unique in its examination of such films as Ex Machina The Lone Ranger The Blind Side Zootopia The Fast and the Furious franchise and Dope which celebrate the myth of colorblindness yet perpetuate and entrench the racism and racial inequities that persist in contemporary society While the OscarsSoWhite movement has been essential to bringing about structural changes to media industries and offers the opportunity for a wide diversity of voices to alter and transform the dominant colorblind narratives continue to proliferate As this book demonstrates Hollywood still has a long way to go      Time & Tide Helen A.
