Patience And Power Grace For The First World:

Patience and Power Jean-Marc Laporte,1988      Recognizing the Gift Daniel A. Rober,2016-06-01 Recognizing the Gift puts twentieth century Catholic theological conversations on nature and grace particularly those of Henri de Lubac and Karl Rahner into dialogue with Continental philosophy notably the thought of Jean Luc Marion and Paul Ricoeur It argues that a renewed theology of nature and grace must build on the accomplishments of the recent past while acknowledging that an engagement with the political is unavoidable for theology Ultimately the aim is to revive and broaden discussion of nature and grace by drawing together the insights of contemporary theologians and Continental philosophers Too often these areas of inquiry remain quite separate in part due to differing priorities This work tries to open that conversation in part by critically pointing out in dialogue with Ricoeur the need in Marion s work for an acknowledgment of recognition reciprocity and the political It thus argues for a theology of nature and grace in terms of recognition of the gift drawing out the reciprocal and political nature of gift and givenness in opposition to those including Marion who would seek to avoid politics and reciprocity as a proper avenue of inquiry for theology      The Gift of the Church Peter C. Phan,2016-03-24 As the Church enters its third millennium it must take stock of its identity and mission These essays in The Gift of the Church address the fundamental issues confronting the Church in its immediate future Their authors represent the most prominent ecclesialogists of our time Written in honor of Patrick Granfield OSB these essays form a textbook for classes in ecclesiology They also are a useful tool for those engaged in various ministries in the Church to update themselves on the theology of different aspects of the Church The first section of essays discusses ecclesiology in its historical development as well as its methodology the second examines various aspects of the Church and the third part presents the life and work of Patrick Granfield The essays are clearly written and based on solid and extensive scholarship Ecclesiology has been the central theme of theological reflections since Vatican II and may continue to be in the next millennium This textbook fulfills in part Pope John Paul II s Vision for the Jubilee Year when Christians with a profound sense of commitment will likewise express their gratitude for the gift of the Church Essays and authors in Part One Ecclesiology in Historical Context are Theologies of the Church in the New Testament by Frank J Matera The Development of Ecclesiology Early Church to the Reformation by Eric Plumer The Development of Ecclesiology Modernity to the Twentieth Century by Michael J Himes The Significance of Vatican Council II for Ecclesiology by Joseph A Komonchak The Ecclesiology of John Paul II by Avery Dulles Ecumenical Ecclesiology by Michael A Fahey and Theological Method for Ecclesiology by Pedro Rodriguez Essays and authors in Part Two Contemporary Ecclesiology are The Church as Communion by Susan K Wood The Church as Worshiping Community by Gerard Austin The Ecclesial Dimension of Anthropology by Michael J Scanlon The Ecclesial Dimension of Spirituality by George Tavard The Evangelizing Mission of the Church by Francis A Sullivan Salvation Outside the Church by John P Galvin The Social Mission of the Church Its Changing Context by T Howland Sanks Ministries in the Church by John Ford The
