Re Distribution Of Authority A Cross Regional Perspective:

Re-distribution of Authority Jeanie J. Bukowski, Swarna Rajagopalan, 2000-05-30 Bukowski Rajagopalan and their contributors seek to cross both analytical and geographic boundaries in the study of why and how authority shifts both within and beyond the modern nation state They develop a conceptualization of the re distribution of authority that is when the capacity of governmental and societal units involved in carrying out the tasks and responsibilities of governance change over time relative to each other They argue that this is a more comprehensive alternative to extant conceptualizations used to study the shifting of authority such as decentralization regionalism or federalism Nine diverse cases are then presented Pakistan India Sri Lanka the United States Russia Spain Portugal Senegal and South Africa Each case addresses the questions Which are the factors that explain the re distribution of authority Under what conditions are some of these factors more important than others Despite the diversity of the cases in both geographic location and levels of economic and political development four major explanatory factors emerge as common across all nine cases identity related claims economic imperatives considerations of administrative efficiency and political agency Moreover discerning the complex interaction of these factors is necessary in understanding the re distribution of authority in both its centralizing and decentralizing forms across all levels of governance Of particular interest to scholars students and policy researchers involved with international relations comparative politics public administration political development and state formation and ethnonational politics

State and Nation in South Asia Swarna Rajagopalan, 2001 What makes a national community out of a state Addressing this fundamental question Rajagopalan studies national integration from the perspective of three South Asian communities Tamilians in India Sindhis in Pakistan and Tamils in Sri Lanka that have a history of secessionism in common but with vastly different outcomes Rajagopalan investigates why integration is relatively successful in some cases Tamil Nadu less so in others Sindh and disastrous in some Sri Lanka Broadly comparative and drawing together multiple aspects of political development and nation building her imaginative exploration of the tension between state and nation gives voice to relatively disenfranchised sections of society Local Government in Central and Eastern Europe Andrew Coulson, Adrian

Campbell, 2007-08-02 This book examines the democratic changes that took place in civil society in Central and Eastern Europe after the break up of the Soviet Union Between Europeanization and Local Societies Jeanie Bukowski, Simona Piattoni, Marc Smyrl, 2003 The contributors of this thoughtful book explore the role and influence of political leadership through a rigorous comparative analysis of regional level dynamics in Europe Visit our website for sample chapters

Virginia journal of international law , 2002 The Federalism Report , 1994 Perspectives on Democratic Consolidation in Central and Eastern Europe Dirk Berg-Schlosser, Raivo Vetik, 2001 This volume consists of twenty studies on problems related to transition to democracy in central and eastern Europe during the decade following the collapse of communist states The book focuses on preconditions and problems of transitions case studies patterns of performance and consolidation and inter regional comparative aspects      Application of Big Data, Deep Learning, Machine Learning, and Other Advanced Analytical Techniques in Environmental Economics and Policy Tsun Se Cheong,Xunpeng (Roc) Shi,Yanfei Li,Yongping Sun,2022-07-25      Municipal Reform in Canada Joseph Garcea,Edward C. LeSage,2005 This book presents an analysis of the purposes processes politics and outcomes of reform for each of the provinces and the northern territories These analyses reveal that reforms during this turn of the millennium period have reconfigured and in some cases re empowered municipal governance and shifted the balance of roles responsibilities and relationships among city and regional municipal governments and between them and their respective provincial and territorial governments The reform process however has not gone so far as to reinvent municipal governance and is not likely to in the foreseeable future Indeed the extent of change in recent years in many jurisdictions has brought about a degree of reform fatigue so that the principle actors in provincial municipal politics may be reticent to pursue new initiatives in the near future      The Class Gap in Protest Participation Viktoriia Muliavka,2024-08-01 The Class Gap in Protest Participation discusses a theoretically grounded empirical analysis of the relationship between class and protest involvement across Central Eastern and Western Europe In recent decades mass protests have surged in both frequency and scale yet there remains a significant variability in citizen involvement in non electoral politics across Europe While affluent Western democracies often witness robust civic engagement countries of Central and Eastern Europe exhibit comparatively limited political participation This regional gap is particularly pronounced when examining post socialist workers who show minimal protest activity Addressing this phenomenon the book starts from the following question Why do workers in Central and Eastern Europe demonstrate disproportionately lower rates of protest engagement compared to their Western European counterparts The study reveals that the answer lies beyond conventional explanations such as legacies of communism Cross regional disparities in working class protest activism are driven by differences in labor protection and left mobilization capacity These variations stem from the historical context and the economic dependency of post socialist countries which create distinct conditions for workers political engagement in the core and semi periphery This book will be of interest to political scientists and sociologists especially researchers interested in political participation social inequality and post socialist transformations      Modeling Practice and Mechanism Design of Green Energy Systems towards Sustainable Development Jianli Zhou,Lirong Liu, Meiheriayi Mutailipu,Shuai Geng,Shenbo Yang,Ting Zhang,2025-03-12 The sustainable development of energy has become a global concern The energy system as an extremely important module for production conversion transmission and supply in the energy industry is facing pressure from deep decarbonization and green transformation The application of wind power photovoltaic hydrogen energy power to gas P2G technology carbon capture utilization and storage CCUS technology will help the energy system achieve the Sustainable Development Goals Hydrogen energy will become a bridge for various energy conversion promoting the high speed flow of green energy Therefore modeling practice and mechanism design for green energy systems will become a key area of academic research The full utilization and consumption of renewable energy generation e g wind and photovoltaic still face difficulties and challenges especially the problem of full consumption The development and layout of multi energy complementarity coupling and interaction and collaborative integrated energy systems can effectively solve the above problems Therefore there is an urgent need to study the mechanism planning and design optimized operation development mode carbon emission reduction energy policies and trading mechanisms of integrated energy systems coupled with renewable energy generation and hydrogen energy to promote its further development and help achieve a clean and sustainable future This field will integrate the knowledge and methodology from energy science power electronics management science and economics International Affairs ,2002 Membership
