Reading For Form:

Reading for Form Susan J. Wolfson, Marshall Brown, 2015-12-14 Reflecting varieties of theory and practice in both verse and prose from the Middle Ages to the twenty first century these essays by many of America s leading literary scholars call for a reinvigorated formalism that can enrich literary studies open productive routes of commerce with cultural studies and propel cultural theory out of its thematic ruts This book reprints Modern Language Quarterly s highly acclaimed special issue Reading for Form along with new essays by Marjorie Perloff D Vance Smith and Susan Stewart and a revised introduction by Susan Wolfson With historical case studies and insightful explorations Reading for Form offers invaluable material for literary critics in all specializations Technology Enhanced Innovative Assessment Hong Jiao, Robert W. Lissitz, 2017-11-01

Assessment innovation tied to technology is greatly needed in a wide variety of assessment applications This book adopts an interdisciplinary perspective to learn from advances in developing technology enhanced innovative assessments from multiple fields The book chapters address the development of virtual assessments including game based assessment simulation based assessment and narrative based assessment as well as how simulation and game based assessments serve both formative and summative purposes Further chapters address the critical challenge of integrating assessment directly into the learning process so that teacher effectiveness and student learning can be enhanced Two chapters specifically address the psychometric challenges related to innovative items One chapter talks about evaluating the psychometric properties of innovative items while the other chapter presents a new psychometric model for calibrating innovative items embedded in multiple contexts In addition validity issues are addressed related to technology enhanced innovative assessment It is hoped that the book provides readers with rich and useful information about the development of several types of virtual assessments from multiple perspectives The authors include experts from industry where innovative items have been used for many years and experts from research institutes and universities who have done pioneering work related to developing innovative items with formative applications to facilitate learning In addition expert advice has been provided on validating such work Documents Accompanying the Journal of the House Michigan.
