Service Evangelism:

Service Evangelism Richard Stoll Armstrong, 1979-01-01 Service Evangelism has been used by thousands of pastors and lay leaders throughout the United States and Canada to advance a style of evangelism that combines the social and personal dimensions of the gospel

Be Dynamic (Acts 1-12) Warren W. Wiersbe, 2012-12-10 The ministry of the Holy Spirit is not a luxury it is an absolute necessity writes celebrated author and respected pastor Warren Wiersbe In his first of two books covering Acts Be Dynamic focuses on Peter's ministry mostly in Israel and centered in Jerusalem Through explaining Luke's record of the Gospel's advancement and church expansion Wiersbe opens the door to understanding the work of the church today Using hard hitting quotes from recognized names like St Augustine and John Bunyan Wiersbe proves himself as a well read author and gifted writer The depth of his study is astounding yet the accessibility of his text for every age group is evident as well He proves what Luke intended for Acts to be interpreted not as the apostles glorious acts but as the life changing acts of the Holy Spirit The same Spirit lives in believers today the same God calls followers to expand His church and the same basic problems still arise within the church but the same power available then is still available now to change the nations

Saving Souls, Serving Society Heidi Rolland Unruh, Ronald J. Sider, 2005-10-06 Recent years have seen unprecedented attention to faith based institutions as agents of social change spurred in part by cuts in public funding for social services and accompanied by controversy about the separation of church and state The debate over faith based initiatives has highlighted a small but growing segment of churches committed to both saving souls and serving society What distinguishes faith based from secular activism How do religious organizations express their religious identity in the context of social services How do faith based service providers interpret the connection between spiritual methodologies and socioeconomic outcomes How does faith motivate and give meaning to social ministry Drawing on case studies of fifteen Philadelphia area Protestant churches with active outreach Saving Souls Serving Society seeks to answer these and other pressing questions surrounding the religious dynamics of social ministry While church based programs often look similar to secular ones in terms of goods or services rendered they may show significant differences in terms of motivations desired outcomes and interpretations of meaning Church based programs also differ from one another in terms of how they relate evangelism to their social outreach agenda Heidi Rolland Unruh and Ronald J Sider explore how churches navigate the tension between their spiritual mission and the constraints on evangelism in the context of social services The authors examine the potential contribution of religious dynamics to social outcomes as well as the relationship between mission orientations and social capital Unruh and Sider introduce a new vocabulary for describing the religious components and spiritual meanings embedded in social action and provide a typology of faith based organizations and programs Their analysis yields a framework for Protestant mission orientations that makes room for the diverse ways that churches interrelate spiritual witness and social compassion Based on their observations the authors offer a constructive approach to church state partnerships and provide a far more objective understanding of faith based social services than previously available The Evangelistic Love of God & Neighbor Bishop Scott J. Jones,2010-08-01 There are it seems as many definitions of the term evangelism as there are people doing the defining For some it means proclaiming the gospel to those who have not heard it To others it means making disciples of Jesus Christ To others it means working for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God For still others it has principally to do with building vibrant healthy congregations Underlying this confusion is a fundamental inability to locate the practice of evangelism within one s overall theological convictions We will never understand the part that proclamation disciple making kingdom building and church growth play in evangelism until we first ask a more important question What does evangelism have to do with who God is What is it we know about God that makes evangelism a central part of what it means to be Christian In this comprehensive theology of evangelism Scott J Jones proposes to ground the practice of evangelism in an understanding of God s love for the world specifically as seen in the incarnation of God in Christ In Jesus God took on all of what it means to be human Because of this evangelism must be a ministry to the whole person The typical distinctions between soul winning social action and church growth evaporate individual conversion and acts of mercy are part of the same ministry of bringing persons more fully into the reign of a loving God Small Group Outreach Jeffrey Arnold,1998-01-01 Jeffrey Arnold in this book on the dynamics of small group spirituality argues that healthy small groups must grow outward in their commitment to those outside the group in evangelism prayer and missions
