Seven Days In East Timor Ballot And Bullets:

East Timor, Australia and Regional Order James Cotton, 2004-05-20 This book explains the exceptional nature of the East Timor intervention of 1999 and deals with the background to the trusteeship role of the UN in building the new polity All of these developments had an important impact on regional order not least testing the ASEAN norm of non interference Australian complicity in the Indonesian occupation of East Timor was a major factor in the persistence of Indonesian rule in the territory which was maintained for twenty five years despite international censure and which required an unremitting campaign against the independence movement This work reviews the reasons for that history of complicity and explains the extraordinary change of policy that led ultimately to the occupation of the territory by the Australian led INTERFET coalition

The Internet in Indonesia's New Democracy David T. Hill, Krishna Sen, 2005-06-28 The Internet in Indonesia s New Democracy is a detailed study of legal economic political and cultural practices surrounding the provision and consumption of the Internet in Indonesia at the turn of the twenty first century Hill and Sen detail the emergence of the Internet into Indonesia in the mid 1990s and cover its growth through the dramatic economic and political crises of 1997 and the subsequent transition to democracy Conceptually the Internet is seen as a global phenomenon with global implications however this book develops a way of thinking about the Internet within the limits of geo political categories of nations and provinces The political turmoil in Indonesia provides a unique context in which to understand the specific local and national consequences of a global universal technology

Humanitarian Intervention and International Relations Jennifer M. Welsh, 2003-12-18 Should states use military force for humanitarian purposes What are the challenges to international society posed by humanitarian intervention in a post September 11th world This path breaking work brings together well known scholars of law philosophy and international relations together with practitioners who have been actively engaged in intervention during the past decade Together this team provides practical and theoretical answers to one of the most burning issues of our day Case studies include Somalia Rwanda the Balkans and East Timor as well as the recent US intervention in Afghanistan The book demonstrates why humanitarian intervention continues to be a controversial issue not only for the United Nations but also for Western states and humanitarian organizations

East Timor in Transition, 1998-2000, 2001 Annexes contain Australian Government documents August 1998 4 September 1999 and United Nations documents 5 May 25 October 1999 Is Intervention Humanitarian? Inger Österdahl, 2002 Humanitarian intervention raises many questions Spreading democracy is often cited as a goal of such intervention but what is meant by democracy is anything but clear Just as uncertain is the question of how to achieve democracy Typically it is easier to begin an act of intervention than to conclude one In the case of East Timor a UN initiated action has resulted in a new state now being left to make it on its own So far the US has played an overwhelmingly large role in interventions abroad A view from outside the US and another from inside considers under what circumstances the US is likely to intervene abroad for humanitarian purposes and whether these circumstances are likely to appear in the near future The interdisciplinary symposium and the production of this book has been generously supported by the Swedish Emergency Management Agency The Bulletin ,2003 Who's who in Australia ,2007 Contemporary Southeast Asia ,2001 Seven Days in East Timor Tim Fischer,2000 Seven Days in East Timor is Tim Fischer s story In it he tells the reader what he saw what he thought and what he felt as he led the All Party Australian delegation through one of the most tumultuous events in recent Southeast Asian history Violence hope deception faith and a people s quiet determination to have their say whatever the cost these are some of the ingredients of one man s personal account of the agony that accompanied the birth of an independent East Timor BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Who's who in Australia 2009 ,2007 A biographic reference to notable people in Australia Entrants are drawn from all areas of Australian life including the arts politics education medicine defence business diplomatic service and recipients of honours and awards Peace Research Abstracts Journal ,2003 Australian Family Physician ,2000 Who's who in Australia 2008 ,2007 A biographic reference to notable people in Australia Entrants are drawn from all areas of Australian life including the arts politics education medicine defence business diplomatic service and recipients of honours and awards Katalog induk nasional ,2001 American Book Publishing Record ,2001 East Timor Lansell Taudevin,1999
