Reading Fabliaux

Katherine A. Brown

Reading Fabliaux:

Boccaccio's Fabliaux Katherine A. Brown, 2020-04-02 A remarkably well informed and truly innovative study of the way Boccaccio reimagined and rewrote Old French fabliaux in his Decameron François Rigolot Princeton University Theoretically savvy and yet jargon free philologically impeccable and critically acute this is a book that shows the author's unflinching dedication to the highest standards of scholarship Simone Marchesi author of Dante and Augustine Brown's attention to codicological contexts coupled with persuasive new interpretations of some of the fabliaux and Decameron stories make this book a pleasure to read for medievalist veterans and novices alike Renate Blumenfeld Kosinski author of Poets Saints and Visionaries of the Great Schism 1378-1417 Short works known for their humor and ribaldry the fabliaux were comic or satirical tales told by wandering minstrels in medieval France Although the fabliaux are widely acknowledged as inspiring Giovanni Boccaccio's masterpiece the Decameron this theory has never been substantiated beyond perceived commonalities in length and theme This new and provocative interpretation examines the formal similarities between the Decameron's tales of wit wisdom and practical jokes and the popular thirteenth century fabliaux Katherine Brown examines these works through a prism of reversal and chiasmus to show that Boccaccio was not only inspired by the content of the fabliaux but also by their fundamental design where a passage of truth could be read as a lie or a tale of life as a tale of death Brown reveals close resemblances in rhetoric literary models and narrative structure to demonstrate how the Old French manuscripts of the fabliaux were adapted in the organization of the Decameron Identifying specific examples of fabliaux transformed by Boccaccio for his classic Decameron Brown shows how Boccaccio refashioned borrowed literary themes and devices playing with endless possibilities of literary creation through manipulations of his model texts Katherine A Brown is a specialist of medieval French and Italian literature Torture and Brutality in Medieval Literature Larissa Tracy, 2015 A new look at the way in which medieval European literature depicts torture and brutality The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, Harris Feinsod, David Marno, Alexandra Slessarev, 2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993 The Old French Fabliaux Kristin L. Burr,, John F. Moran, Norris J. Lacy, 2007-11-20 This collection of 14 critical essays examines short comedic tales from the 13th and 14th centuries commonly known as the medieval French fabliaux Each essay focuses on a different aspect of common fabliaux humor as illustrated by a scholarly analysis of one or several original texts Topics covered include the frequent use of bacon as humorous symbolism in Barat et Haimet Aloul and Le Sacristain II the use of comedic rhyme in Le Prestre comporte and Le Prestre et le chevalier and the common virgin miracle tale in La Nonete Throughout the work contributors attempt to provide a serious analysis of the fabliaux without losing sight of the tales original comedic content and appeal Medievalia et Humanistica, No. 47 Reinhold F. Gleis, Maik Goth, 2022-03-14 Since its founding in 1943

Medievalia et Humanistica has won worldwide recognition as the first scholarly publication in America to devote itself entirely to medieval and Renaissance studies Since 1970 a new series sponsored by the Modern Language Association of America and edited by an international board of distinguished scholars and critics has published interdisciplinary articles In yearly hardcover volumes the new series publishes significant scholarship criticism and reviews treating all facets of medieval and Renaissance culture history art literature music science law economics and philosophy Volume 47 showcases a variety of transnational and translingual perspectives analyzing the works of humanist authors from across Europe and how language can affect the interpretation of the literature It expands beyond the Eurocentric appraisal of medieval works and takes into consideration a broader response

Words that Tear the Flesh Stephen Alan Baragona, Elizabeth Louise Rambo, 2018-01-22 The rhetorical trope of irony is well trod territory with books and essays devoted to its use by a wide range of medieval and Renaissance writers from the Beowulf poet and Chaucer to Boccaccio and Shakespeare however the use of sarcasm the flesh tearing form of irony in the same literature has seldom been studied at length or in depth Sarcasm is notoriously difficult to pick out in a written text since it relies so much on tone of voice and context This is the first book length study of medieval and Renaissance sarcasm Its fourteen essays treat instances in a range of genres both sacred and secular and of cultures from Anglo Saxon to Arabic where the combination of circumstance and word choice makes it absolutely clear that the speaker whether a character or a narrator is being sarcastic Essays address among other things the clues writers give that sarcasm is at work how it conforms to or deviates from contemporary rhetorical theories what role it plays in building character or theme and how sarcasm conforms to the Christian milieu of medieval Europe and beyond to medieval Arabic literature The collection thus illuminates a half hidden but surprisingly common early literary technique for modern readers

The Old French Fabliaux Anne Elizabeth Cobby, 2009 Concise accounts of editions and studies of the Old French fabliaux The Old French fabliaux form a corpus of over 120 short comic verse narratives from the late twelfth to the early fourteenth centuries which has been the subject of very active work over the last thirty years building on continuous though less intensive interest over the previous century There are many editions a society and a journal devoted to fabliaux study but until now no bibliographical survey The author of this analytical bibliography takes a wide view of the definition of the genre in French but does not include work primarily on Chaucerian fabliaux or those in other languages Around 1 000 entries offer precise well judged and well written accounts of work published in this area of study ANNE COBBY is Librarian of the Faculty of Modern Medieval Languages at the University of Cambridge
