Setting Priorities for Environmental Management Wendy S. Ayres, Kathleen A. Anderson, David Hanrahan, 1998 Mining and industrial activities if poorly managed can damage the environment and leave behind contaminated soils polluted groundwater and waste material The two papers in this volume illustrate the methodologies developed for selecting priority sites for remediating environmental problems due to mining It also describes the high priority investments that would provide the greatest benefits for the available resources The methodologies have broad application and could be used to identify priority remediation investments in other sectors where past activities have led to environmental problems From

Transition to Accession Esen Ulgenerk, Leila Zlaoui, 2000-01-01 Bulgaria is recovering from a severe economic and financial crisis after more than half a decade of macroeconomic mismanagement As a candidate country for accession to the EU Bulgaria will need to establish stable well regulated and competitive financial markets and institutions This paper reviews developments in the financial markets Legal Impediments to Effective Rural Land Relations in Eastern Europe and

Central Asia Roy L. Prosterman, Timothy M. Hanstad, 1999-01-01 Excessive concentration of land ownership as is feared by many transition governments has not been a feature of land markets where they have been allowed to function relatively freely and where land has been allocated in kind to households and individuals The World Bank has long been active in the Europe and Central Asia region in monitoring and evaluating land reform developments and supporting the development of land markets Bank efforts to date have made a significant impact in our client countries and studies produced by the Bank have been used as impartial references on this subject by both international organizations and the countries themselves This report was developed as a result of these efforts It focuses on The principal issues faced by the transition economies of Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union The potential approaches for resolving specific problem issues Agricultural Support Policies in Transition Economies Alberto Valdés, 2000-01-01 Studies of Russia Romania Poland Bulgaria and Turkey

Dismantling Russia's Nonpayments System Brian Pinto, Vladimir Drebenstov, Aleksandr Morozov, 2000-01-01 One question preoccupies many scholars and practitioners How can economic growth in the Russian Federation be reinvigorated This report contributes to the current debate Nonpayments in Russia evolved into a complex inter linked system over the latter half of the 1990s becoming one of the most critical issues facing policymakers This paper analyzes this system including its origins its evolution the factors that now perpetuate it and its costs and identifies a minimum set of economic reforms needed to dismantle it The paper also proposes answers to key questions about nonpayments including How has its course been influenced by government policy at the federal and subnational levels What are the links with macroeconomic policy What is the role of the energy sector and how has the system affected the way businesses operate What are the implications for economic growth How indeed as part of Russia's transition to a monetized market economy did the nonpayments system come to exert a stranglehold on virtually every aspect of the economy This report will be of interest to policymakers and economists interested in transition economies Poverty and Policy in Latin America and the Caribbean Quentin Wodon, Robert L. Ayres, 2000 Although the progress toward poverty reduction remains sluggish other dimensions of social welfare in the Latin American and Caribbean LAC region show signs of improvement Adult literacy and school enrollment rates life expectancy at birth and the amount of access to safe water are increasing Nutrition indicators are also improving However other factors demonstrate that many problems persist especially the inequality between rich and poor This report analyzes the evolution of poverty and inequality in the LAC region from 1986 to 1996 with projections to 1998 It reviews the policies which have been advocated or implemented to reduce poverty The report combines the results of new empirical work using household surveys from 12 countries short theoretical developments and a review of the literature on issues related to poverty inequality and social policy in LAC Some of the theoretical developments introduce new research techniques Chapters three to six follow the framework proposed in the forthcoming World Development Report 2000 2001 The framework identifies three essential elements for poverty reduction Those elements include opportunities for the poor and investments in the human capital of the poor security through social safety nets and empowerment Food Safety Issues in the Developing World

 Laurian Unnevehr, Nancy Hirschhorn, 2000-01-01 Food safety is receiving more attention worldwide with the rising incidence of foodborne disease concern over new potential hazards and growth in agricultural trade Investments to improve food safety in developing countries can reduce the burden of disease and remove the barriers to fresh food product exports providing another source of income for the rural sector International disputes over sanitary and phytosanitary SPS measures influence the ability of developing countries to compete in export markets These countries need to evaluate their interest in the SPS agreement under the World Trade Organisation WTO participate more fully in international agencies responsible for harmonisation develop the capacity to assess equivalence for process standards which are increasingly used for fresh food products and resist the imposition of inappropriate standards A Guide to the World Bank, 2003 The World Bank Group works in more than 100 developing economies and is one of the world s largest sources of development assistance In 2002 the institution provided US 19.5 billion in loans to its client countries This guide reviews the organisation s history objectives and operations and looks at the five institutions that make up the World Bank Group the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development IBRD the International Development Association IDA the International Finance Corporation IFC the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency MIGA and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ICSID Ready for Europe Barbara Nunberg, 2000-01-01 As the ongoing political and economic transition in the Central and Eastern Europe countries CEE moves into the next century the most advanced countries in the region are preparing to deal with their prospective entry into the European Union More a process than an event joining the EU is likely to place heightened demands on public administrations throughout the region To assist these countries with their efforts the Bank conducted a study of the regions The results of that study are included in this volume

Ready for Europe specifies and clarifies the administrative requirements of accession The author uses in depth case studies for three pre accession countries Estonia Hungary and the Czech Republic to make these specifications The book defines the performance level countries will need to attain for a range of administrative tasks so the countries may reach a minimal threshold for EU membership It applies selected standards to determine each country s readiness for accession and for the longer term transition agenda The author focuses on these three critical areas of administrative performance in the context of EU accession How advanced is the development of a politically neutral professional human resource cadre in the civil service Do countries have the necessary institutional infrastructure at the government s core that is cabinet level to formulate and coordinate policymaking in an efficient and democratic manner How well are the dedicated institutional structures and processes established to shepherd countries through the accession process working

Food and Agriculture in the Czech Republic Csaba Csáki, Michel Debatisse, Oskar Honisch, 1999-01-01 Becoming a member of the European Union is one of the most important objectives of the Czech Republic for the coming years both for the government and for the Czech society as a whole With the exception of a few traditional Czech products the Czech Republic is not a major exporter of agricultural goods due to its land locked position and relatively poor product differentiation Since the velvet revolution in 1989 agricultural production has declined To conform to European Union standards for accession the Czech Republic needs to make some adjustments This report reviews the current state of Czech agriculture and agro industry in the context of EU accession It analyzes institutional reforms and their actual impacts and proposes a series of adjustments to complete the reforms in the agricultural sector This report is intended for agricultural scientists public officials agricultural and agro industrial leaders and researchers interested in the transformation of agriculture in the transition economies and in issues pertaining to accession of Central and East European candidate countries to the European Union
