Sex of Architecture Diana Agrest, 1996-09 This book brings together 24 provocative texts that collectively express the power and diversity of women's views on architecture today This volume presents a dialogue among women historians practitioners theorists and others concerned with critical issues in architecture and urbanism Building Sex Aaron Betsky, 1995 Buildings have always been an expression of human sexuality In this book architecture critic and curator Aaron Betsky takes a look at the man made world and concludes that it is just that made by men and not women The structure of buildings and the layout of cities in the modern world have almost always been determined by men and the abstract and alien order of grids and columns that has resulted imprisons us in a way of living based on repression and in some cases oppression By contrast it is women who create the interior spaces within these man created environments Comfortable beautiful seductive and logical these interiors act as areas of escape self definition and sometimes even revelation Drawing on a wide range of architectural examples from African mud huts to modern apartment complexes Betsky explores what effects this division of architectural labor has had on our sensibilities and indeed on how we relate to one another as men and women He believes that although it has always been thus we do not have to live within this dichotomy between the exterior and the interior the made and the lived the masculine and the feminine forever It is possible says Betsky to create spaces of liberation spaces in which we can re construct our selves and our world Architecture, 1997 Sex in Architecture Oscar A. Perez, J. P. MacNeil, 1980 Sex and Buildings Richard J. Williams, 2013-07-15 Massive modern skyscrapers obelisks towers all are structures that thanks to their phallic shape are often associated with sex But other buildings are more subtly connected as they provide the frameworks for our sexual lives and act as reminders of our sexual memories This relationship between sex and buildings mattered more than ever in the United States and Europe during the turbulent twentieth century when a culture of unprecedented sexual frankness and tolerance emerged and came to dominate many aspects of public life Part architectural history part cultural history and part travelogue Sex and Buildings explores how progressive sexual attitudes manifest themselves in architecture asking what progressive sexuality might look like architecturally and exploring the successes and failures of buildings attempts to reflect it In search of structures that reflect the sexual mores of their inhabitants Richard J Williams visits modernist buildings in Southern California the Westin Bonaventure Hotel the Playboy Mansion in Chicago the Seagram in New York communes from the 1960s and more A fascinating and often funny look at a period of extraordinary social change coupled with aesthetic invention Sex and Buildings will change the way we look at the buildings around us Marketing at the Confluence between Entertainment and Analytics Patricia Rossi, 2017-04-29 This volume presents the full proceedings of the 2016 Academy of Marketing Science AMS World Marketing Congress held in Paris France It contains current research in marketing from academics scholars and practitioners from around the world Focusing on advancing marketing theory and practice this volume will help marketers to
