powerful and urgently needed manifesto not to be galvanised into action Sophie Morgan TV host and author of Driving Forwards A call to arms not just for the disabled community but for every single one of us Dr Shani Dhanda broadcaster and author An actionable antidote to fear and misconceptions Service95 In The Anti Ableist Manifesto Tiffany Yu highlights the myriad ways in which our society discriminates against people with disabilities and what we can do about it. Foregrounding disabled identities that have too often been rendered invisible, she demonstrates how ending discrimination begins with self-reflection. From recognising biases to understanding microaggressions, The Anti Ableist Manifesto teaches us how to deconstruct ableism at work in our communities and within ourselves. Featuring a foreword by Dr Shani Dhanda as well as contributions from disability advocates, entrepreneurs and more, The Anti Ableist Manifesto is an essential guide to going beyond mere awareness and becoming actively anti-ableist.

America's Top Jobs for People Without a Four-year Degree J. Michael Farr, 2000-07. Contains the most up-to-date information on growth, earnings and trends in major industries, providing more than 100 thorough job descriptions. Special sections discuss career planning and job search techniques. Also includes an appendix with jobs grouped by education and training required.

Job Searching Online For Dummies? Pam Dixon, 1998-05-27. Every job hunter knows the Internet is loaded with career opportunities. Job Searching For Dummies lights the path to the perfect job. The CD-ROM contains the software necessary for connecting to a selected online service templates for building an online resume, a Web browser and an HTML file link to all of the sites listed in the directory.

Weddle's Directory of Employment-related Internet Sites for Recruiters & Job Seekers Peter D. Weddle, 2003-12. This is the 4th edition of the address book of employment sites on the Internet. The Directory lists over 6,000 job boards, resume databanks and career portals and provides their address, also called their Universal Resource Locator or URL, on the Internet.

Weddle's Directory of Employment-related Internet Sites for Recruiters & Job Seekers, 2004. World Development Report 2016 World Bank Group, 2016-01-14. Digital technologies are spreading rapidly, but digital dividends—the broader benefits of faster growth, more jobs and better services—are not. If more than 40 percent of adults in East Africa pay their utility bills using a mobile phone, why can't others around the world do the same? If 8 million entrepreneurs in China, one third of them women, can use an e-commerce platform to export goods to 120 countries, why can't entrepreneurs elsewhere achieve the same global reach? And if India can provide unique digital identification to 1 billion people in five years and thereby reduce corruption by billions of dollars, why can't other countries replicate its success? Indeed, what's holding back countries from realizing the profound and transformational effects that digital technologies are supposed to deliver? Two main reasons. First, nearly 60 percent of the world's population are still offline and can't participate in the digital economy in any meaningful way. Second, and more important, the benefits of digital technologies can be offset by growing risks. Startups can disrupt incumbents, but not when vested interests and regulatory uncertainty obstruct competition and the entry of new firms. Employment opportunities may be greater, but not when the labor market is polarized. The Internet can be a platform for universal empowerment, but not when it becomes a tool for state control and elite capture. The World Development Report 2016 shows that while the digital revolution has forged ahead, its analog complements—the regulations that promote entry and competition, the skills that enable workers to access and then leverage the new economy and the institutions that are accountable to citizens have not kept pace And when these analog complements to digital investments are absent the development impact can be disappointing What then should countries do They should formulate digital development strategies that are much broader than current information and communication technology ICT strategies They should create a policy and institutional environment for technology that fosters the greatest benefits In short they need to build a strong analog foundation to deliver digital dividends to everyone everywhere
