Evaluating Information Retrieval and Access Tasks Tetsuya Sakai, Douglas W. Oard, Noriko Kando, 2020-09-01 This open access book summarizes the first two decades of the NII Testbeds and Community for Information access Research NTCIR NTCIR is a series of evaluation forums run by a global team of researchers and hosted by the National Institute of Informatics NII Japan The book is unique in that it discusses not just what was done at NTCIR but also how it was done and the impact it has achieved For example in some chapters the reader sees the early seeds of what eventually grew to be the search engines that provide access to content on the World Wide Web today s smartphones that can tailor what they show to the needs of their owners and the smart speakers that enrich our lives at home and on the move We also get glimpses into how new search engines can be built for mathematical formulae or for the digital record of a lived human life Key to the success of the NTCIR endeavor was early recognition that information access research is an empirical discipline and that evaluation therefore lay at the core of the enterprise Evaluation is thus at the heart of each chapter in this book They show for example how the recognition that some documents are more important than others has shaped thinking about evaluation design The thirty three contributors to this volume speak for the many hundreds of researchers from dozens of countries around the world who together shaped NTCIR as organizers and participants This book is suitable for researchers practitioners and students anyone who wants to learn about past and present evaluation efforts in information retrieval information access and natural language processing as well as those who want to participate in an evaluation task or even to design and organize one

The Retargeting Playbook Adam Berke, Gregory Fulton, Lauren Vaccarello, 2014-03-04 How to reach the 98 percent of people who leave your website without converting sales The Retargeting Playbook is a complete guide for digital marketers about how to reach the 95 to 98 percent of people who leave a brand s website without converting Retargeting gives advertisers the ability to stay in front of those people to bring them back and close the deal For that reason retargeting has emerged as a must have marketing channel yet there is a lack of content that explains how the technology actually works and best practices for using it Even marketing managers at large sophisticated brands and agencies don t have a strong grasp of this evolving channel and there are few good neutral sources on the topic Meanwhile retargeting is the cornerstone of any holistic digital advertising strategy since it improves the results of every other channel if implemented correctly Unfortunately most marketers are only utilizing the most rudimentary retargeting tactics and barely scratch the surface of its potential Explains how to stay in front of potential customers and convince them to come back and close the deal This book will be required reading for media buyers at digital agencies in house marketing managers at companies in any vertical performance marketers and ecommerce managers
