Privatization Liberalization And Destruction Recreating The Market In Central And Eastern Europe:

Privatization, Liberalization, and Destruction László Csaba, 1994 The volume is a selection of papers devoted to key issues of economic transformation privatization liberalization the role of the financial sector and external economic relations The interplay of these four areas of transition strategy forms the backbone of the collection Privatization, Liberalization, and Destruction László Csaba, 1994 The volume is a selection of papers devoted to key issues of economic transformation privatization liberalization the role of the financial sector and external economic relations The interplay of these four areas of transition strategy forms the backbone of the collection Privatisierung und öffentliche Finanzen Dirck Süß, 2016-09-12 Keine ausführliche Beschreibung für Privatisierung und öffentliche Finanzen verfügbar The Political Economy of Transformation Hans-Jürgen Wagener, 2013-12-11 This book analyzes the political economic implications of system transformation as experienced now in Central and Eastern Europe and in China The whole societal organization being in motion and economic activity being in a deep recession political leaders will find it extremely difficult to secure consensus and support for redesigning institutions and stabilizing and restructuring activity The ensuing process is certainly not one of optimal control but has rather evolutionary characteristics leading constantly to paradoxes and dilemmas The first part of the book discusses different paradigms within which the complex process of transformation could fruitfully be analyzed Democratic theory bargaining theory efficiency theory institutionalism all contribute to the understanding of the complex phenomena Key topics of the second part are among others policy aspects of privatization adjustment of fiscal system and policy industrial restructuring the different case of China The book illustrates that the first euphoria of planning the transition to markets was rather naive analytically and politically Transformation is not only an economic puzzle not even in the first place It is very much of a sociopolitical problem and has to be treated as such The book can be used as a reader or as background literature in corresponding course Springers Handbuch der Volkswirtschaftslehre 2 Jürgen v. Hagen, Paul J.J. Welfens, Axel Börsch-Supan, 2013-03-07 Springer's Handbuch der VWL stellt in insgesamt 20 Beiträgen die wichtigsten Gebiete der Volkswirtschaftslehre vor Die Beiträge enthalten umfassendes praxis- und praxisrelevantes Wissen für Studenten Praktiker und Wissenschaftler Es ist ihr Ziel dem Leser volkswirtschaftliche Fragen Methoden und Ergebnisse und die Möglichkeiten und Grenzen ökonomischer Analyse zu erläutern und zugleich einen Eindruck davon nahezubringen warum Volkswirtschaftslehre als Fach interessant ist Band 2 behandelt die Wirtschafts- und Finanzpolitik die Geldpolitik die Sozialpolitik sowie die Wettbewerbspolitik und die internationalen Wirtschaftsbeziehungen Institutionelle Probleme der Systemtransformation Dieter Cassel, 1997-09-05 Als Ende der 80er Jahre die ehemals sozialistischen Länder Mittel und Osteuropas begannen ihre Planwirtschaften in Marktwirtschaften zu transformieren waren die meisten Ökonomen sehr optimistisch was die Geschwindigkeit und den Erfolg des Systemwechsels betraf Daran gemessen ist die Transformation bisher in vielerlei Hinsicht enttäuschend verlaufen Produktion und Beschäftigung sind zunächst einmal kräftig eingebrochen

Preisniveaustabilität ist längst noch nicht erreicht und die Privatisierung kommt in den meisten Ländern nur schleppend voran. Als Folge davon wachsen die sozialen und politischen Spannungen, kommt es zu Migrations- und Sezessionsbewegungen und droht die Transformation bisweilen sogar zu scheitern. Diesen Befund zu erklären ist eine besondere Herausforderung der Wirtschaftswissenschaft, insbesondere der Ordnungstheorie. Der Ausschuss für Wirtschaftssysteme des Vereins für Socialpolitik hat sich deshalb auf seiner Jahrestagung 1996 vom 22 bis 24. September in Kassel einmal mehr mit der Systemtransformation beschäftigt. Dieses Mal ging es zum einen um die ordnungstheoretische Erklärung des institutionellen Wandels im Transformationsprozess zum anderen um die Analyse der Transformationsdefizite im Bereich der sozialen Sicherung, der Geldordnung, der Privatisierung und der Unternehmensverfassung. Der vorliegende Sammelband fasst die dazu vorgelegten Beiträge zusammen.

Legal Aspects of Privatisation Bulent Seven, 2002. The main aims of this thesis are as follows: a) To present a comprehensive analysis of the concept of privatisation, its origins and limits; b) To identify the legal and institutional framework for privatisation in different European countries from a comparative perspective; c) To define and analyse particularly legal issues which arise during the privatisation transactions, e.g. labour law, competition law, etc.; d) To evaluate which features of the successful legal and organisational framework of privatisation have been successful so as to provide guidelines for those individuals and organisations participating in the privatisation exercises. This work found out that there is no simple internationally applicable recipe for privatisation; various legal methods and techniques can be used to privatise state-owned enterprises. Because each country has different circumstances, it is impossible to provide a unique model for privatisation; each country needs to design its own model according to its circumstances. Privatisation is an essential but insufficient element for structural economic reform in the economy and society. Privatisation is not a panacea; it is not the solution to every economic and administrative problem. Selling an enterprise to the private sector does not mean an end to all problems. Also, privatisation is not an overnight process or a magic touch; it will be a lengthy process. Furthermore, a decision that something can be privatised does not mean that it should be privatised. In that context, privatisation is not good or bad; it is an economic and social instrument. If it is well designed, it may bring substantial benefits to the economy and society. In many countries, many state-owned enterprises, particularly the ones which are financially weak, have still not been privatised. This finding revealed that the privatisation process will be in the political and economic agenda for at least a few more decades.

Europe CEE cereals production constitutes a major proportion of agricultural sector output and expenditure on cereals products represents a significant component of total household expenditure Perhaps for these very reasons cereals sector reform in many countries has tended to lag behind that of other sectors within agriculture and of the liberalization process in general This lack of reform has prevented the countries of the region from realising the full productive potential of their cereals industries and threatens to undermine food security This book is based on a workshop on cereals sector reform and food security in the Newly Independent States NIS and CEE held in Kiev Ukraine in December 1995 It addresses the general issues involved in the reform process and also considers the progress made and constraints encountered in specific countries in the region Earlier chapters consider general features of the reforms and the later chapters are concerned with country specific issues The workshop was held as part of a broader initiative by ICERC to create a framework for cooperation on the critical issues of economic transition in this region to revitalise trade to stimulate investment to increase food production to develop and conserve resources and to take effective action on environmental problems
