campaigns such as the 1956 7 Hundred Flowers movement the Cultural Revolution the April Fifth Movement of 1976 Democracy Wall and the 1989 Democracy Movement The author provides the most detailed and complete picture of workers protest in China to date and locates their position within the context of Chinese political history Chinese Workers demonstrates that the image of Chinese workers as politically conformist and reliable supporters of the Communist Party does not match the realities of industrial life in China Recent outbreaks of protest by workers are less of a departure from the past than is generally realized

China's Road to Disaster: Mao, Central Politicians and Provincial Leaders in the Great Leap Forward, 1955-59 Frederick C Teiwes, Warren Sun, 2016-07-01 This text analyzes the dramatic shifts in Chinese Communist Party economic policy during the mid to late 1950s which eventually resulted in 30 to 45 million deaths through starvation as a result of the failed policies of the Great Leap Forward Teiwes examines both the substance and the process of economic policy making in that period explaining how the rational policies of opposing rash advance in 1956 57 gave way to the fanciful policies of the Great Leap and assessing responsibility for the failure to adjust adequately those policies even as signs of disaster began to reach higher level decision makers In telling this story Teiwes focuses on key participants in the process throughout both rational and utopian phases Mao other top leaders central economic bureaucracies and local party leaders The analysis rejects both of the existing influential explanations in the field the long dominant power politics approach focusing on alleged clashes within the top leadership and David Bachman's recent institutional interpretation of the origins of the Great Leap Instead this study presents a detailed picture of an exceptionally Mao dominated process where no other actor challenged his position where the boldest step any actor took was to try and influence his preferences and where the system in effect became paralyzed while Mao kept changing signals as disaster unfolded
