Russian Historiography from 1880 to 1905 Thomas M. Bohn, 2024-06-01 In Russian historiography the Moscow School's paradigm shift from political and legal history to social and economic history was markedly driven by Pavel Miliukov 1859-1943 the late leader of the Constitutional Democrats and foreign minister of the Provisional Government Russian Historiography from 1880 to 1905 develops a narrative of historical sociology's advancement through the Moscow School under Miliukov's influence and provides a window into his decision making as a political figure who based his leadership not on public opinion but on the effectiveness of historical processes National Bolshevism David Brandenberger, 2002 During the 1930s Stalin and his entourage rehabilitated famous names from the Russian national past in a propaganda campaign designed to mobilize Soviet society for the coming war In a provocative study David Brandenberger traces this populist national Bolshevism into the 1950s highlighting the catalytic effect that it had on Russian national identity formation
