Searching For Peace In Africa:

Searching for Peace in Africa Monique Mekenkamp, Paul van Tongeren, Hans van de Veen, 1999 The Horn of Africa Militarism, Warfare and the Search for Peace in Angola Horace Campbell, 2001 A Search for Peace and Justice Michael Scott, Alexander Paul Hare, 1980 Power, Politics, and the African Condition Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 2004 Power Politics and the African Condition is the third volume of The Collected Essays of Ali A Mazrui which will provide readers with a broad spectrum of Ali A Mazrui's scholarly writings. The third volume is centered on issues of power and politics at the nexus of Africa's domestic affairs and its international concepts about the disequilibrium of power in the international system and the problems that Africa has confronted globally because of it. Mazrui focuses the reader's attention on the impact that the colonial legacy and African tradition had on state formation, leadership, Africa's political economy, violence and conflict resolution while presenting some of his most interesting and even controversial ideas for building Pax Africana. Spanning nearly forty years, Mazrui's essays are classic and contemporary statements on the diagnosis and treatment of what he called The African Condition. Regional Economic Communities and Peacebuilding in Africa Victor Adetula, Redie Bereketeab, Cyril Obi, 2020-12-30. This book outlines challenges to the effective operation of regional economic communities (RECs) with regards to peacebuilding in Africa. Critically examining these issues from an interdisciplinary perspective with a focus on comparative analysis of the status, role and performances of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) and Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD), it examines particular constraints to their effective participation in regional initiatives. Focussing on inadequate technical capabilities, the complicity of state and non-state actors in conflicts within a region, the domestic politics of member states, it additionally addresses related theories and practices of peacekeeping, security development and the peacebuilding nexus. It also engages provisioning regionalism and regional peacekeeping interventions, the legal and institutional framework of RECs and civil society and peacebuilding. Fundamentally, the book asks how effective the alliances and partnerships are in promoting regional peace and security and how much they are compromised by the intervention of external powers and actors, exploring new ideas and actions that may strengthen capacities to address the peacebuilding challenges on the continent effectively. This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of African politics and studies, peace and security studies, regionalism studies, policy practitioners in the field of African peacebuilding and more broadly to international relations. The Open Access version of this book is available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003093695> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 license. Yearbook of International Organizations, 1984-12 Building Sustainable Peace Tom Keating, W. Andy Knight, 2012-07-02. As the world turns its attention to the reconstruction of Afghanistan and Iraq following recent conflicts in these countries, the issue of post-conflict peacebuilding takes centre stage. This collection presents a timely and original overview of the field of peace studies and offers fresh analytical tools which promote a critical reconceptualization of peace and conflict while also making specific reference to peacebuilding strategies employed in recent international conflicts

Ever since the end of World War II and even more so since 1960 when 17 African colonies became independent of colonial rule the African continent has been ravaged by a series of wars These wars have ranged from liberation struggles against former colonial powers to power struggles between different factions in the aftermath of independence They have ranged from border wars between newly independent states to civil wars between ethnic groups As with many conflicts outside forces were drawn into these wars and major powers outside the continent intervened on one side or the other for a variety of reasons political ideology Cold War considerations ethnic alignments and stemming the flow of violence Whether referring to Algeria's struggle for independence from French colonial rule Nigeria's internal struggles to achieve a balanced state after the British departure the Rwandan genocide of 1994 or the current ethnic cleansing in Darfur The A to Z of Civil Wars in Africa covers all of the wars that have occurred in Africa since independence This is done through a chronology broken down by country an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries covering the wars conflicts major political and military figures child soldiers mercenaries and blood diamonds

Reconciliation and the Search for a Shared Moral Landscape Maria Ericson, 2001 This book focuses on reconciliation in Northern Ireland and South Africa The overarching aim is to identify formal and material conditions or prerequisites for reconciliation and moral community or more precisely a shared moral landscape In both countries obstacles to reconciliation can be found in the following elements of a moral landscape Experiences of trauma separation and inequalities divergent views of the conflict and of the other opposing identifications and loyalties certain norms for interaction and contestant interpretations of values such as peace and justice This book describes how these obstacles have been addressed in 1 Efforts particularly by ecumenical groups to bridge the Catholic Protestant divide in Northern Ireland 2 The work of and debates surrounding the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission On the basis of these dialogues in adverse circumstances this study then suggests some prerequisites for emancipatory conversations a central question in the search for a global ethics

The Fabric of Peace in Africa Pamela Aall, Chester A. Crocker, 2017-06-05 Africa has experienced dozens of conflicts over a variety of issues during the past two decades Responding to these conflicts requires concerted action to manage the crises the violence the political discord and the humanitarian consequences of prolonged fighting It is also necessary to address the long term social and economic impacts of conflict to rebuild communities societies and states that have been torn apart To accomplish this requires the involvement of institutions and groups rarely considered in formal official African conflict management activities schools universities religious institutions media commercial enterprises legal institutions civil society groups youth women and migrants These groups and organizations have an important role to play in building a sense of identity fairness shared norms and cohesion between state and society all critical components of the fabric of peace and security in Africa This volume brings together leading experts from Africa Europe and North America to examine these critical social institutions and groups and consider how they can either improve or impede peaceful conflict resolution The overarching questions that are explored by the authors are What constitutes social cohesion and resilience in the face of conflict What are the threats to cohesion and resilience And how can the positive elements be fostered and by whom The second of two volumes on African conflict management capacity by the editors The Fabric of Peace in Africa Looking beyond the State opens new doors of understanding for students scholars and practitioners focused on strengthening peace in Africa the first volume Minding the Gap African Conflict Management in a Time of change focused on the role of mediation and peacekeeping in managing violence and political crises The Search-light ,1905
