Seasons in Basilicata David Yeadon, 2009-10-06 Award winning travel writer and illustrator David Yeadon embarks with his wife Anne on an exploration of the lost world of Basilicata in the arch of Italy's boot. What is intended as a brief sojourn turns into an intriguing residency in the ancient hill village of Aliano where Carlo Levi author of the world renowned memoir Christ Stopped at Eboli was imprisoned by Mussolini for anti Fascist activities. As the Yeadons become immersed in Aliano's rich tapestry of people traditions and festivals reveling in the rituals and rhythms of the grape and olive harvests the culinary delights and other peculiarities of place they discover that much of the pagan strangeness that Carlo Levi and other notable authors revealed still lurks beneath the beguiling surface of Basilicata.

Seasons in Basilicata David Yeadon, 2001-01-01 A year in the life of a remote southern Italian hill town rich with local characters and strange pagan laced customs a place very different from the more gentrified northern Italy of Tuscany and Umbria. Award winning travel writer and illustrator David Yeadon embarks with his wife Anne on an exploration of the wild mountainous lost world of Basilicata in the arch of Italy's boot. What is intended as a brief sojourn turns into a much longer and far more intriguing residency across the seasons. The Yeadons make a home in the ancient and alluring hill village of Aliano where Carlo Levi author of the world renowned memoir Christ Stopped at Eboli was imprisoned by Mussolini during World War II for anti Fascist activities. The Yeadons become immersed in Aliano's rich tapestry of people traditions and festivals reveling in the rituals and rhythms of the grape and olive harvests the unique culinary delights of the region and other enticing peculiarities of place. At the same time they discover that much of the pagan strangeness that Carlo Levi and other notable authors revealed still lurks beneath the beguiling surface of Basilicata. Evocative illustrations and richly colorful often humorous tales of life in the hill village form the framework for Seasons in Basilicata.

the southern Italian city of Matera is the ultimate palimpsest Known as the Sassi the majority of the ancient city is composed of thousands of structures carved into a limestone cliff and clinging to its walls The resultant menagerie of forms possesses a surprising visual uniformity and an ineffable allure Conversely in the 1950s Matera also served as a crucible for Italian postwar urban and architectural theory witnessed by the Neorealist modernist expansion of the city that developed in aversion to the Sassi In another about face the previously disparaged cave city has now been recast as a major tourist destination UNESCO World Heritage Monument and test subject for ideas and methods of preservation Set within a sociopolitical and architectural history of Matera from 1950 to the present this book analyses the contemporary effects of preservation on the city and surrounding province More broadly it examines the relationship between and interdependence of preservation and modernism within architectural thought To understand inconsistencies inherent to preservation in particular its effect of catalyzing change the study lays bare planners and developers use of preservation especially for economic goals and political will The work asserts that preservation is not a passive curatorial pursuit it is a cloaked manifestation of modernism and a powerful tool often used to control economies The study demonstrates that preservation also serves to influence societies through the shaping of memory and circulation of narratives Talking Book Topics
