

The background of the cover is a detailed, monochromatic illustration in shades of teal and green. It depicts a workspace with several sheets of paper, some with horizontal lines. A pen lies on one of the papers, and a ruler is visible on the left side. The overall style is that of a technical or architectural drawing.

The most trusted and authoritative name in handbooks The Little Brown Compact Handbook with Exercises is an easy to use reference that will answer any question you may have in grammar writing or research It also includes exercises so you can practice skills This edition offers the latest information on writing with computers writing online analyzing visuals and researching effectively on the Internet With clear explanations a wealth of examples and quick reference checklists and boxes The Little Brown Compact Handbook will makes it easy to find what you need and use the information you find Will answer any question a writer has about grammar the writing process or research The writing process critical thinking argumentative writing style grammar mechanics usage the research process how to document sources Anyone who wants a reliable writing reference book Grading Students' Classroom Writing: Issues and Strategies Bruce W. Speck,2000-06-26

This book offers detailed and complex guidance and the necessary techniques for grading college students writing It examines why it is important to integrate grading into the writing process the need for effective writing assignments ensuring fair professorial judgments promoting student learning helping students learn how to respond effectively to writing and administrative support for effective grading Sections of the book cover the writing process and grading students writing fitting evaluation with the writing process marrying writing and grading constructing writing assignments determining purpose and audience critiquing writing assignment fairness and professional judgment grading methods including students in the assessment of writing professorial authorities cheating preparing students to make informed decisions about writing quality and providing feedback for revision reading and responding to students writing common misperceptions about feedback A final section recommendations that faculty 1 tailor the writing and grading process to particular classroom situations 2 use writing to help students learn 3 not grade all writing 4 make wise use of time required for the writing and grading process and 5 integrate literature on grading into their professional reading An appendix offers an example of a student paper with effective written comments Contains approximately 200 references CH CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1994 Gail E. Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1996-09 This volume lists and annotates more than two thousand articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions appeared in 1994 It includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter The 1994 Bibliography looks dramatically different from the Bibliography Erika Lindemann founded more than ten years ago Many more titles now relate to fields not represented in early editions Although composition and rhetoric has always borrowed methods of investigation from other disciplines areas such as critical theory science studies feminist theory technology studies and postmodern theory were much less a part of the discipline a decade ago These fields are well represented this year This volume like the 1993 Bibliography also differs from early editions in that it contains a section on electronic discussion groups or listservs including information on how readers may join the various groups Yet the mission and goals of the Bibliography remain the same to ensure that it is sufficiently comprehensive that it can continue to function as a major bibliographical resource available to scholars and teachers in rhetoric composition communication and literary education As usual the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws on a large group of experts in the field Annotations which accompany every entry in this volume describe a publication's contents and are intended to help users determine the entry's usefulness Annotations are brief and are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about but leave readers free to judge for themselves the work's merits The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric remains a critical bibliographical resource one that reflects and respects the variety of scholarship in composition studies and that exerts a constructive productive influence on the composition and rhetoric community Current Index to Journals in Education, 2001 New Directions in Portfolio Assessment Donald A. Daiker, Laurel Black, 1994 Representing a range of approaches and voices this text explores the tensions and ambiguities of portfolio assessment While some of its essays problematize portfolio use at the classroom level others move beyond the classroom to construct new research agendas in writing assessment Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 1997
