Toward Healthy Aging Priscilla Ebersole, Patricia A. Hess, Ann Schmidt Luggen, 2004

Toward Healthy Aging is a definitive comprehensive source for health promotion and health maintenance in gerontologic nursing education. Noted for its use of Maslow's hierarchy of needs, this resource and its author team have been praised for the text's wellness-based and holistic approach, comprehensive coverage of common as well as not so common conditions in the older adult, accuracy of content and pedagogic aids that promote student understanding. This popular resource provides a solid understanding of how to effectively provide holistic care, promote healthy lives and address end-of-life issues and concerns. Instructor resources are available; please contact your Elsevier sales representative for details.

Gerontological Nursing & Healthy Aging Priscilla Ebersole, 2005. Gerontological Nursing: Healthy Aging provides thorough coverage of promoting healthy aging when caring for older adults. The intent throughout the book is to facilitate the healthiest adaptation possible for any older adult regardless of the situation and disease process. The majority of the book is devoted to discussing the significant problems that may occur and methods that nurses may use to make these problems more bearable to solve, some and to help the elder find the best possible resolution towards healthy aging. Incorporates healthy aging strategies to maximize the healthiest behaviors of clients/patients with dementia and their caregivers. Disease processes are discussed in the context of healthy adaptation, nursing support responsibilities to help the reader gain an understanding of their client's experience. Focus on health and wellness establishes a positive perspective to aging. Careful attention to age, cultural and gender differences are integrated throughout to help the nurse understand these important considerations in caring for older adults. Each chapter provides a consistent organization including learning objectives, research, study questions, activities. Assessment guidelines are incorporated throughout as tables, boxes and forms to provide useful tools for practice. Activities and discussion questions at the end of every chapter provide situations to expand student knowledge and understanding. Appendices and resource lists assist in further exploration of material. Text correlates with federal guidelines for Healthy People 2010 to assist the student in integrating knowledge about healthy aging considerations. Expanded content on pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic pain management in Chapter 15 and integrated within appropriate content sections. Completely revised Culture and Aging chapter includes discussions of health disparities and working with interpreters to help identify nursing care interventions appropriate for ethnic elders. New author team with Theris Touhy and Kathleen Jett adds a wealth of experience related to gerontological nursing education and research.

Geriatric Nursing and Healthy Aging Priscilla Ebersole, Patricia A. Hess, 2001. Each unit builds the fundamental concepts required to effectively treat older adults and teaches how to help them to reach their highest level of wellness regardless of their physical disorder.

Geriatrics Roseann Mulligan, 2005. Roseann Mulligan is a past President of the American Society for Geriatric Dentistry and she has compiled a wide-ranging issue on geriatric dentistry. Along with clinical chapters on root caries, periodontics, orofacial pain and geropharmacology, societal issues such as diminishing sensory adaptability, failing cognition and the underserved elderly are addressed
