Seven Versions Of An Australian Badland:

Seven Versions of an Australian Badland Ross Gibson, 2002 To travel this long lonely road is to traverse a stretch of brutal history and to enter a gigantic crime scene The landscape itself holds a million clues to a horror story blazing across two centuries Winding through a haunted place that is forever frontier territory this road is the scene of casual as well as callous murder whether from the 1970s the 1960s or the 1860s Not for nothing is it known as the Horror Stretch In this compulsively readable new book Ross Gibson drives right back along that dangerous stretch and finds himself deep in the Badland Part road movie part memoir part murder mystery Seven Versions of an Australian Badland embarks on an enthralling journey through time into the realms of myth and magic narcissism and genocide

Animals and Science Fiction Nora Castle, Giulia Champion, 2024-03-22 Animals and Science Fiction is the first edited collection to be published focusing on the intersection of animal studies and science fiction studies It offers a broad range of theoretical approaches and primary source texts including novels short stories poetry film and TV photography erotica video games and urban planning documents that explore the ways works of science fiction can transform how we see and interact with nonhuman others With an eye toward more just multispecies futures it argues that speculative imaginaries can be pivotal in changing attitudes toward and understandings of nonhuman animals in our world today Chapters appeal to those interested in biopolitics posthumanism new materialism ecocriticism and the environmental humanities ocean humanities postcolonial studies critical race studies Indigenous studies global sf studies film studies and food studies Taken together the collection works to showcase a diverse and growing field of scholarly inquiry into animals and science fiction

Australian Gothic Jonathan Rayner, 2022-06 The book reads the Gothic characteristics of Australian cinema within their national cultural context The book relates the key motifs and concerns of Gothic literature to the styles narratives and significance of Australian films The book places examples of Australian Gothic film within the Australian filmmaking and film criticism and relates these to the wider trends of international horror film

Travel Writing from Black Australia Robert Clarke, 2015-11-19 Over the past thirty years the Australian travel experience has been Aboriginalized Aboriginality has been appropriated to furnish the Australian nation with a unique and identifiable tourist brand This is deeply ironic given the realities of life for many Aboriginal people in Australian society On the one hand Aboriginality in the form of artworks literature performances landscapes sport and famous individuals is celebrated for the way it blends exoticism mysticism multiculturalism nationalism and reconciliation On the other hand in the media cinema and travel writing Aboriginality in the form of the lived experiences of Aboriginal people has been exploited in the service of moral panic patronized in the name of white benevolence or simply ignored For many travel writers this irony the clash between different regimes of valuing Aboriginality is one of the great challenges to travelling in Australia Travel Writing from Black Australia examines the ambivalence of contemporary travelers engagements with Aboriginality Concentrating on a period marked by the rise of discourses on Aboriginality championing indigenous empowerment self determination and reconciliation the author analyses how travel to Black Australia has become for many travelers a means of discovering new and potentially transformative styles of interracial engagement

Teaching Australian and New Zealand Literature Nicholas Birns, Nicole Moore, Sarah Shieff, 2017-05-01 Offers techniques for teaching Australian and New Zealand literature in college and discusses the history of the two countries Maori and Aboriginal texts colonialism gender landscapes violence indigenous aesthetics ethics and crime fiction Includes information on editions reference works and online resources Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses

Dreams and Nightmares of a White Australia Catriona Elder, 2009 Analysis of the assimilation issues and race relations in five novels from the 1950s and 1960s and three non fiction and texts that were produced in academic and government circles regarding the half caste problem in the 1930s and 1940s includes overview of assimilation in Australia and definitions of assimilation management of race relations in Australia eugenic politics Aboriginality 1937 Aboriginal welfare conference Citizenship for the Aborigines 1944 Australia s Colours Minority Its place in the community 1947

Writing the Australian Beach Elizabeth Ellison, Donna Lee Brien, 2020-03-02 Writing the Australian Beach is the first book in fifteen years to explore creative and cultural representations of this iconic landscape and how writers and scholars have attempted to understand and depict it Although the content chiefly focuses on Australia the beach as both a location and idea resonates deeply with readers around the world This edited collection includes three sections Forms of Beach Writing examines the history of beach writing in Australia and in a number of forms screenwriting social media writing and food writing In turn Multiplicities of Australian Beach Writing examines how forms of writing poetry travel writing horror film and memoir engage with some specific beaches in Australia And finally Reading the Beach as a Text considers how the beach itself functions in cultural narratives how we walk the beach the revealing story of beach soccer and the design and use of ocean baths Given its scope the collection offers a unique resource for scholars of Australian culture and creative writing and for all those interested in Australian beaches

Tracking the Literature of Tropical Weather Anne Collett, Russell McDougall, Sue Thomas, 2017-01-09 This book tracks across history and cultures the ways in which writers have imagined cyclones hurricanes and typhoons collectively understood as tropical weather Historically literature has drawn upon the natural world for its store of symbolic language and technical device making use of violent storms in the form of plot drama trope and image in order to highlight their relationship to the political social and psychological realms of human affairs Charting this relationship through writers such as Joseph Conrad Herman Melville Gis le Pineau and other writers from places like Australia Japan Mauritius the Caribbean and the Philippines this ground breaking collection of essays illuminates the specificities of the ways local national and regional communities have made sense and even relied upon the literary to endure the devastation caused by deadly tropical weather
