Picasso And The War Years 1937-1945:

Picasso and the War Years, 1937-1945 Steven A. Nash, 2003-03 This absorbing book draws upon new research and works that in some cases were held out of public view in Picasso's own collection to explore the critically important but still understudied period of his life from the Spanish Civil War through World War II and the Nazi occupation of France This span of years is marked by some of the most intensely personal and expressive work of his career The subjects he painted changed dramatically in direct response first to the horrors of war and then the dangers and privations of life in occupied Paris where though branded a degenerate artist by the Nazis he chose to remain until the Liberation Picasso and the War Years, 1937-1945 Pablo Picasso, Steven A. Nash, Robert Rosenblum, Brigitte Baer, 1998 This book is published in conjunction with a major exhibition organized by the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco It traces Picasso's responses to the cataclysm of war as manifested in a lengthy series of figure paintings still lifes portraits and cityscapes amplified by prints drawings and photographs drawn from collections all around the world Picasso und der Nationalsozialismus Michael Klepsch, 2007

Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 Rosemary O'Neill, 2012 Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956-1971 offers the first in depth study of the Ecole de Nice The author shows how artists indigenous to the region challenged the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and growing internationalism in the arts Rewriting Texts Remaking Images Leslie Anne Boldt-Irons, Corrado

Federici, Ernesto Virgulti, 2010 The twenty four essays in Rewriting Texts Remaking Images Interdisciplinary Perspectives examine the complex relationships between original creative works and subsequent versions of these originals from both theoretical and pragmatic perspectives The process involves the rereading reinterpretation and rediscovery of literary texts paintings photographs and films as well as the consideration of issues pertaining to adaptation intertextuality transcodification ekphrasis parody translation and revision The interdisciplinary analyses consider works from classical antiquity to the present day in a number of literatures and include such topics as the reuse and resemantization of photographs and iconic images Das Zeitalter der Avantgarden Klaus von Beyme, 2005 "Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 " Rosemary O'Neill, 2017-07-05 The Riviera in the 1950s and 1960s was culturally rich with modernist icons such as Matisse and Picasso in residence but also a burgeoning tourist culture that established the C d Azur as a center of indigenous artists associated with Nouveau R isme Fluxus and Supports Surfaces emerged under the mantle of the Ecole de Nice Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications generated during the period from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives this study integrates material published in monographic studies of individuals and art movements to offer the first in depth study of this important movement in twentieth century art The author situates the work of the Ecole de Nice within the broader social currents that are so important in contextualizing this phenomenon within this internal region of France and underscores why this work was so significant at this historical moment within the context of the broader European art scene and contemporary American art with which it shared affinities Despite their stylistic differences and associations with groups that are generally considered distinct O'Neill discloses that these artists shared conceptual affinities theatrical modes of presentation based on appropriation use of the ready made and a determination to counter style driven painting associated with the postwar Ecole de Paris Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956-1971 suggests that the emergence of an Ecole de Nice internally eroded the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and that these artists fostered a model of aesthetic pluralism that remained locally distinct yet fully engaged with international vanguard trends of the 1960s

Sustenance for the Body & Soul Dr Debra D Andrist, 2021-10-27 The food secure and or privileged worldwide no longer eat and drink simply to maintain life itself They have the advantage and choice to regard sustenance not just as fuel for the body machine but as a source of pleasure and entertainment for the mind intellect This enhanced concept of sustenance embraces all the senses visual auditory olfactory gustatory and tactile thus including not just food ceremonies literature art space architecture African cookbook discourse and socio gender influence literature including cultural comparisons of cooking and cooks preparation representation of food drink as artistic endeavours including by Latin American women and types of inspirational fodder especially in the context of Picasso's art in Spain France Spanish wine museums labelling Sustenance for the Body Soul is the seventh book in the Hispanic Worlds series details of which are available on the press website Picasso and His Art During the War Years 1937-1945 Bernadette R. Identity and Image Jutta Vinzent, 2006-06-22 This book explores the image and identity of migr painters sculptors and graphic artists from Nazi Germany in Britain between 1933 and 1945 It focuses on a neglected field of Exile Studies that of exiled artists in Britain Methodologies used in this study have been developed by Exile Studies and History of Art but also by Postcolonialism scholars of which usually apply their ideas to the Afro Asian emigration of the second part of the twentieth century Thus this study represents methodologically a new way of looking at the emigration from Nazi Germany Identity and Image is divided into five chapters After an introductory Chapter One historiography of the topic methodology of the study structure of the book Chapter Two establishes socio political patterns of emigration and provides an historical framework for Chapters Three and Four which concentrate on the image and identity of the refugee artist the former based on written sources and the latter on visual material In detail Chapter Three analyses the British image of the refugee artists and their works on the one hand and the migr's self representations on the other the latter exemplified by refugee organisations the Free German League of Culture Freier Deutscher Kulturbund the Austrian Centre the Anglo Sudeten Club and the Czech Institute and institutions founded by migr artists Jack Bilbo's Modern Art Gallery and Arthur Segal's Painting School Chapter Four examines the works produced in internment and those exhibited and produced for the refugee organisations discussed in Chapter Three Chapter Five discusses the results of this study in the light of three postcolonial concepts diaspora communities the notion of home and the gendered identity of the refugee The appendix lists all painters sculptors and graphic artists from Nazi Germany in Britain with biographical details Apart from visual and written sources discussed for the first time there are two major results of the study First although the artists were united as refugees this unity did not lead to a unity in art refugee art is a construction put forward by the British press and the refugee organisations particularly the Free German League of Culture Second contrary to claims that modern art was international and formed a universal unity that transgressed nationality neither the West Europe nor modernism form unities instead in the 1930s and 1940s cultures in Europe constructed conceptions of other European cultures on the basis of nation state identities Picasso Pablo Picasso, Carmen Giménez, 2006 This catalogue includes two essays entries on all the works and a selection of texts on Picassos relationship with the great masters of the past The first essay is by the exhibitions curator Francisco Calvo Serraller and focuses on Picassos dual perspective on tradition and modernity The second by Jorge Semprín looks at Guernica and the history of the period Given that the works in question are examples of modern art the entries by curators at the Museo del Prado and the Reina Sofia are innovative in that they are written in the manner of short essays of the type normally used for entries on Old Master paintings Rites, Rituals & Religions Dr Debra D Andrist, 2023-04-01 Philosophers have contemplated the meaning of life the who a ritual observance can be either a system of ceremonial acts or actions or an act or series of acts regularly repeated in a set precise manner Religion generally encompasses a socio cultural system of designated behaviors and practices morals beliefs worldviews texts sanctified places prophecies ethics or organizations that relates humanity to supernatural transcendental and spiritual elements Religion is a set of beliefs especially when considered as the creation of a superhuman agency or agencies usually involving devotional and ritual observances rites and rituals Control efforts highlighted in this volume range from prehistoric cave paintings Amerindian ceremonies Christian denominational especially Roman Catholic traditions Afro Caribbean syncretic rites to crossovers which deal with the more socio cultural rites of passage like the quinceanera and or dance rites rituals like the Southern Cone tango African candombe Cuban habanera and European waltzes and polkas and the corrido from the public ritual known as tauromaquia The premise behind this comparative volume is to discover how rites rituals religions are addressed in real life in these divergent societies by exploring the visual and literary representations of control Rites Rituals and Religions is eighth and final volume in the Hispanic Worlds series Family Activity Guide ,1999 The Truth Is Always Grey Frances Guerin, 2018-01-30 Changing how we look at and think about the color grey Why did many of the twentieth century s best known abstract painters often choose grey frequently considered a noncolor and devoid of meaning Frances Guerin argues that painters including Jasper Johns Cy Twombly Agnes Martin Brice Marden Mark Rothko and Gerhard Richter select grey to respond to a key question of modernist art What is painting By analyzing an array of modernist paintings Guerin demonstrates that grey has a unique history and a legitimate identity as a color She traces its use by painters as far back as medieval and Renaissance art through Romanticism to nineteenth and twentieth century modernism to show how grey is the perfect color to address the questions asked by painting within art history and to articulate the relationship between painting and the historical world of industrial modernity A work of exceptional erudition breadth and clarity presenting an impressive range of canonical paintings across centuries as examples The Truth Is Always Grey is a treatise on color that allows us to see something entirely new in familiar paintings and encourages our appreciation for the innovation and dynamism of the color grey
