Presbyterians A Spiritual Journey:

Presbyterians Dirk Wierenga, 2000 The book has three sections 1 individual faith stories of Presbyterians young and old black white Asian and native peoples 2 stories of congregations involved in innovative mission 3 stories of schools chaplains presbyteries and other parts of the PCUSA institutional life To Be a Presbyterian Louis Weeks, 2010-01-01 In this lay friendly introduction to what it means to be a Presbyterian Louis B Weeks explains the life history tradition and beliefs of the Presbyterian Church Offering more than providing a brief overview Weeks ties his explanations to actual congregational situations Each chapter begins with an anecdote and then examines the theme in the following pages It is ideal for new member classes and for those who seek a refresher course on Presbyterianism Originally publishing this volume in 1983 Weeks has updated many of the original anecdotes and added material to reflect decades of change in the PC USA

Presbyterians, a Popular Narrative of Their Origin, Progress, Doctrines, and Achievements George Pierce Hays, George Price Hays, 1892 The Presbyterian and Reformed Review Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield, 1896 Includes section Reviews of recent theological literature Psychosis or Mystical Religious Experience? Susan L. DeHoff, 2018-02-13 This book presents a new paradigm for distinguishing psychotic and mystical religious experiences In order to explore how Presbyterian pastors differentiate such events Susan L DeHoff draws from Reformed theology psychological theory and robust qualitative research Following a conversation among multidisciplinary voices she presents a new paradigm considering the similarities differences and possible overlap of psychotic and mystical religious experiences A Controversial Spirit Philip N. Mulder, 2002-04-18 A Controversial Spirit offers a new perspective on the origins and nature of southern evangelicalism Most recent historians have focused on the differences between evangelicals and non evangelicals This has led to the perception that during the Era of Awakenings mid 18th and early 19th century American evangelicals constituted a united front Philip N Mulder dispels this illusion by examining the internal dynamics of evangelicalism He focuses on the relationships among the Presbyterians Baptists and Methodists who introduced the new religious mood to the South between 1740 and 1820 Although the denominations shared the goal of saving souls he finds they disagreed over the correct definition of true religion and conversion The Presbyterians and Baptists subordinated the freedom innovation and experience of the awakenings to their particular denominational concerns The Methodists on the other hand were more aggressive and innovative advocates of the New Light awakenings They broke through the insularity of the other two groups and revolutionized the religious culture of the emerging nation The American Revolution exacerbated the growing competition and jealousy among the denominations by displacing their common enemy the established Anglican church Former dissenters now turned to face each other Free religious competition was transformative Mulder argues The necessity of competing for converts forced the Presbyterians and Baptists out of their narrow confines More importantly however competition compromised the Methodists and their New Light ideals Methodists had presented themselves as an ecumenical alternative to the rigid and rancorous denominations of England and America Now they turned away from their open message of salvation and began using their distinctive characteristics to separate themselves from other denominations The Methodists thus succumbed to the evangelical pattern set by others a pattern of distinction insularity and divisive competition Examining conversion narratives worship polity and rituals as well as more formal doctrinal statements in creeds and sermons Mulder is able to provide a far more nuanced portrait of southern evangelicals than previously available revealing the deep differences between denominations that the homogenization of religious history has until now obscured

American Presbyterian and Theological Review Henry Boynton Smith, James Manning Sherwood, 1871 The Evangelical Repository and United Presbyterian Review, 1871 The Presbyterian Quarterly, 1894 The Reformed Presbyterian and Covenanter, 1887 The Messenger and Missionary Record of the Presbyterian Church in England, 1873 First Presbyterian Church of New Brunswick, N.J. Thomas Nichols, 1876 The Catholic Presbyterian, ed. by W.G. Blaikie William Garden Blaikie, 1882 The Catholic Presbyterian William Garden Blaikie, 1880 Annual Report of the Board of Publication of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Board of Publication, 1883 Home and Foreign Record of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 1874 Minutes - Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. General Assembly, 1877 Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Board of Foreign Missions, 1877 Presbyterian Worship in America Julius Melton, 2001-02-13 Presbyterian Worship in America is the first fully documented historical survey of its theme in the United States Its value is to be found in a combination of broad painting of the major trends with delightfully detailed vignettes of city and country congregations at worship Horton Davies Melton exposes the tension between freedom and order which has always existed among American Presbyterians This concise well researched and well written book will be valuable for students of American religious history as well as for pastors and laymen responsible for guiding the worship of their congregations James H Smylie Dr Melton surveys discussions of worship in the church press and in books arranged loosely according to New School evangelism and Old School formalism Particularly valuable are the sketches of such colorful individuals as Charles Baird Charles Shields Levi Ward Benjamin Comegys and Henry van Dyke James H Nichols The Presbyterian Monthly Record, 1874
