The Concept of History Dmitri Nikulin, 2017-01-26 The Concept of History reflects on the presuppositions behind the contemporary understanding of history that often remain implicit and not spelled out It is a critique of the modern understanding of history that presents it as universal and teleological progressively moving forward to an end Although few contemporary philosophers and historians maintain the view that there is strict universality and teleology in history the remnants of these positions still affect our understanding of history But if history is not universal and singular evolving toward an objective universal end it should be possible to admit of multiple histories some of which we appropriate as our own An another important aspect of this book is that it provides an account of history that is itself both historical and rooted in attempts to narrate and explain history from its inception in antiquity The book seeks to establish features or constituents of history that might be found in any historical account and might themselves be considered historical invariants in history

The Social Studies Curriculum E. Wayne Ross, 2012-02-01 The third edition of The Social Studies Curriculum thoroughly updates the definitive overview of the primary issues teachers face when creating learning experiences for students in social studies By connecting the diverse elements of the social studies curriculum history education civic global and social issues the book offers a unique and critical perspective that separates it from other texts in the field This edition includes new work on race gender sexuality critical multiculturalism visual culture moral deliberation digital technologies teaching democracy and the future of social studies education In an era marked by efforts to standardize curriculum and teaching this book challenges the status quo by arguing that social studies curriculum and teaching should be about uncovering elements that are taken for granted in our everyday experiences and making them the target of inquiry

Stafford, 1867 Confessions of a Heretic Eric Leland Saak, 2025-06-15 This book is the second of a planned three volume systematic theology under the title Confessions of a Heretic Volume One which has the subtitle Philosophical Considerations was published by Archway in 2024 The project now turns to Theological Considerations with the forthcoming Volume Three being Ecclesiological Consideration Organized into three Parts Volume Two focuses on the theological endeavor and the doctrines distinctive to Christianity namely the Trinity Jesus Christ sin and salvation Based on the foundational distinctions and definitions explicated in Volume One the current volume seeks to ask what the philosophical considerations imply for basic traditional understandings and terminology of Christian theology including that of Jesus of Nazareth his crucifixion and resurrection The project as a whole adopts a trinitarian structure with this second volume focused on God the Son or as here termed God the Perfector The argument is that Christian Theology needs to shift from an anthropocentric to a theocentric approach recognizing human beings simply as creatures and having the courage to face what that entails Yet doing so necessitates a radical reconceptualization of the very foundations of Christian Theology itself in the attempt to combat idolatry History of the Berwickshire Naturalists' Club Berwickshire Naturalists' Club
