Presidential Transition in Higher Education, 2006 James Martin, James E. Samels, 2006-01-04 Zimpher University of Wisconsin Milwaukee The Cambridge Handbook of Organizational Community Engagement and Outreach Joseph A. Allen, Roni Reiter-Palmon, 2019-01-03 This is an ideal reference for those looking to understand study and practice community engagement and outreach It discusses the different ways individuals including faculty administrators and management in organizations engage in their communities It supplies case studies best practices and theoretical approaches to the study of community engagement Scholars active in this field can use this book as an integration of the current knowledge concerning community engagement and as an inspiration for future research agendas Whilst directing how to implement effective community engagement practices the book also facilitates the application of organizational theory to community engagement It will appeal to academics who are interested in the theoretical background of community engagement Glocalization and the Development of a Hybrid Leadership Model Qingyan Tian, 2020-10-26 Through in depth interviews with the presidents of major Chinese universities this text explores the changing demands on leaders in Higher Education in the wake of globalization and develops a contemporary model of Hybrid Leadership Glocalization and the Development of a Hybrid Leadership Model examines the leadership philosophies and practices of Chinese university presidents and presents new insights and perspectives on the meaning and practice of leadership in a global era Drawing on data from a unique methodological process which integrates Western and Eastern approaches chapters foreground the experiences of leaders in higher education to demonstrate how they perceive and balance diverse and potentially conflicting local and global demands and ensure effective leadership by combining leadership philosophies and practices from local and global contexts Ultimately this informs the development of new model of leadership characterized by the hybridization of the global and local at the contextual and personal levels and marked by global competency multiple cultural and sectoral mindsets and geographically adaptable skill sets Challenging and enriching the existing theories of leadership for higher education this text will be of interest to scholars post graduate students and academics in the fields of educational leadership international and comparative education higher education and leadership studies It will also be of interests to the practitioners of leadership in general and higher education leadership in particular

Portraits in Leadership Arthur Padilla, 2005-01-01 Leading complex organizations is never easy or simple In this book Padilla uses the university as the organizational vehicle through which to examine the phenomenon of leadership and followership in complex entities The unique characteristics of universities as organizations are discussed and the leadership experiences of six well known university presidents are analyzed within an original framework of leadership Just as John Kennedy's Profiles in Courage considered the notion of political courage within the institutional setting of Congress this book explores leadership within the context of the modern American university The roles of persuasion and communication are highlighted as the author weaves the principal patterns from each of the six case studies to the situational conditions that faced these extraordinary individuals Padilla offers valuable suggestions on how to improve selection of leaders and increase organizational effectiveness The author's plan follows three circles that overlap to form its basic framework 1 The university as a complex organization 2 Leadership its patterns theories and commonalities and 3 Case studies of exemplary leaders which highlight their early experiences and actions The overlap of the three circles defines the conclusions and synthesis Each leader's story covers four areas Childhood background formal schooling education senior leadership roles and major defining events successes and failures and forecasts for higher education and its leadership The book includes an assortment of public and private universities which provides a diversity of leaders who face significant differences in terms of control financing and oversight This diversity allows for more useful comparisons and contrasts The author explains the enormous role that persuasion rather than domination or power plays in successful leadership It is clear that persuasion is effective in many settings and not just in the university environment but it is particularly ef
