Pretty Good For A Girl The Autobiography Of A Snowboarding Pioneer:

Pretty Good for a Girl Tina Basich, Kathleen Gasperini, 2024-06-11 When Tina Basich grabbed her rented snowboard and headed to the mountains in Lake Tahoe snowboarding wasn't even considered a sport yet. It was the beginning and could have easily gone the way of many other sports and become dominated by male driven competition. But not with Tina on the scene. Comments like 'You're pretty good for a girl' only pushed her harder to be the best and to prove she was more than just a token player on the slopes. Representing for women everywhere she became a snowboarding all star. Started her own signature board and clothing lines for women. Founded Boarding for Breast Cancer and followed her heart which led her on the adventure of a lifetime. This is her story. Women in Snowboarding Mari Kristin Sisjord, 2023-06-13 This is the first book to examine the role of women in the origins, development and contemporary landscape of snowboarding. Focusing on organised and professional snowboarding it explores the significance of women as participants, coaches, leaders and high profile sport stars. The book explores the history of snowboarding, the organisation of international snowboarding issues related to facilities, competition formats which are the same for female and male riders and injury risk safeguarding training and coaching. Before the concluding chapter three elite snowboarders representing different epochs and riding styles, Shild Lofthus, Stine Brun Kjeldaas and Kjersti Buaas are introduced whose narratives shed light on the main themes of the book. With a broad scope in terms of topics and academic disciplines from medicine and biomechanics to the social sciences and sport governance the book is grounded in sociology and gender studies. This book is fascinating reading for scholars and students with an interest in the sociology of sport, coaching, sport management, sport history or interdisciplinary perspectives in sport science or anybody with a passion for snowboarding.
