Presence A Ghost Story:

The Presence Eve Bunting, 2010-09-06 A brutal car accident that claimed the life of her best friend has left seventeen year old Catherine in a state of shock and severe depression She longs to move forward with her life but feels she can't until she is somehow assured of her friend's forgiveness On a Christmas visit to her grandmother in Pasadena a mysterious and handsome stranger approaches Catherine at church claiming that he can put her in touch with her dead friend Catherine is wary of the stranger's claims and his ghostly appearance but feels he may be the only key to escaping her past She tells no one of the meeting but is approached by an elderly woman who warns her of the stranger's powers The woman's teenage diary and eerie rumors surrounding other troubled girls who have disappeared from the church community leave Catherine fearful of the stranger's true intentions She realizes she must find some way to confront this supernatural presence as well as the ghosts of her past A classic ghost story from one of Clarion's most distinguished authors Eve Bunting brings a new edge to the genre of suspense by interweaving contemporary issues with sharp and frightful storytelling Apocalypse in Australian Fiction and Film Roslyn Weaver, 2014-01-10 Australia has been a frequent choice of location for narratives about the end of the world in science fiction and speculative works ranging from pre colonial apocalyptic maps to key literary works from the last fifty years This critical work explores the role of Australia in both apocalyptic literature and film Works and genres covered include Nevil Shute's popular novel On the Beach Mad Max children's literature Indigenous writing and cyberpunk The text examines ways in which apocalypse is used to undermine complacency foretell environmental disasters critique colonization and to serve as a means of protest for minority groups Australian apocalypse imagines Australia at the ends of the world geographically and psychologically but also proposes spaces of hope for the future A Christmas Carol in Prose, Being a Ghost Story of Christmas Charles Dickens, Franz Heinrich Ahn, 1871 The better Angels Of Capitalism Andrew Herman, 2019-07-11 This book explores through an ethnographic examination of life stories of wealthy men a historical analysis of the moral meanings of wealth and power in Western capitalism and a mapping of different symbolic spaces in contemporary American culture Beyond the Frame N. Tadiar, A. Davis, 2005-09-16 Beyond the Frame explores the importance of visual images in the identities and material conditions of women of color as they relate to social power oppression and resistance The goal of the collection is to rethink the category of visual theory through women of color It also explores the political and social ramifications of visual imagery for women of color and the political consciousness that can emerge alongside a critical understanding of the impact of visual imagery The book begins with a general exploration of what it means to develop a women of color criticism rather than an analysis of women of color and goes on to look specifically at topics such as 90s fashion advertisements the politics of cosmetic surgery and female fans of East LA rock bands Presences and Absences - Transdisciplinary Essays Katarína Labudová, Nóra Séllei, 2013-10-03 This volume discusses the question of presence and or absence from a transdisciplinary perspective and intends to provide insights into how a wide range of disciplines addresses this issue which has been at the centre of philosophical theoretical and critical debates in the past decades As the essays in the volume prove apparently diverse areas can have a lot in common and talk to each other in sometimes surprising ways The topics discussed include modals in various languages and black slave funeral sermons pragmatic markers and the Australian Stolen Generation the transcendental in poems by Ann Bradstreet Arthur Symons and Philip Larkin short stories by Katherine Mansfield generic presences in Virginia Woolf and contemporary journalism haunting presences in fin de si cle ghost stories and in a contemporary horror film mythical structures in John Cowper Powys and Margaret Atwood and gender politics in Pat Barker and Sarah Waters The analyses as they talk to each other create multiple dialogues without imposing closures and ultimate interpretations on the plethora of possible meanings emerging from the juxtaposition of these essays This transdisciplinary volume written in an erudite but reader friendly language will be of great interest to both the academic world as well as a broader readership interested in how linguistic phenomena in general cultural myths of all kinds various cinematic literary and journalistic genres from diverse periods can be approached and opened up to new readings and meanings from the perspective of presences and absences     Presence Eve

Bunting,2007-06-08 Presence The A Ghost Story     Contemporary Horror on Screen Sarah Baker,Amanda Rutherford,Richard Pamatatau,2023-09-15 This book highlights how horror in film and television creates platforms to address distinct areas of modern day concern In examining the prevalence of dark tropes in contemporary horror films such as Get Out Annabelle Creation A Quiet Place Hereditary and The Nun as well as series such as Stranger Things American Horror Story and Game of Thrones amongst numerous others the authors contend that we are witnessing the emergence of a horror renaissance They posit that horror films or programmes once widely considered to be a low form of popular culture entertainment can contain deeper meanings or subtext and are increasingly covering serious subject matter This book thus explores how horror is utilised as a tool to explore social and political anxieties of the cultural moment and is thus presented as a site for contestation exploration and expansion to discuss present day fears It demonstrates how contemporary horror reflects the horror of modern day life be it political biological social or environmental A vital contribution to studies of the horror genre in contemporary culture and the effect it has on social anxieties in a threatening and seemingly apocalyptic time for the world this is a vital text for students and researchers in popular culture film television and media studies     The Living Church ,2004-07     Representation and Performance in Postmodern Fiction Maurice Couturier,1983

Horrors of War Cynthia J. Miller,A. Bowdoin Van Riper,2015-05-14 Battlefields have traditionally been considered places where the spirits of the dead linger and popular culture brings those thoughts to life Supernatural tales of war told in print on screen and in other media depict angels demons and legions of the undead fighting against or alongside human soldiers Ghostly war ships and phantom aircraft carry on their never to be completed missions and the spirits sometimes corpses of dead soldiers return to confront the enemies who killed them comrades who betrayed them or leaders who sacrificed them In

Horrors of War The Undead on the Battlefield Cynthia J Miller and A Bowdoin Van Riper have assembled essays that explore the meaning and significance of these tales Among the questions that the volume seeks to answer are How do supernatural stories engage with cultural attitudes toward war In what ways do these stories reflect or challenge the popular memories of particular wars How do they ask us to think again about battlefield heroism military ethics and the politics of sacrifice Divided into four sections chapters examine undead war stories in film Carol for Another Christmas The Devil s Backbone television The Twilight Zone literature The Bloody Red Baron Devils of D Day comics Weird War Tales The Haunted Tank graphic novels The War of the Trenches and gaming Call of Duty World at War Featuring contributions from a diverse group of international scholars these essays address such themes as monstrous enemies and enemies made monstrous legacies and memories of war and the war dead who refuse to rest Drawing together stories from across wars branches of service and generations of soldiers and featuring more than fifty illustrations Horrors of War will be of interest to scholars of film popular culture military history and cultural history A Christmas Carol Being a Ghost Story of Christmas Charles Dickens,1907

Presence Movie Review Jacinto C Walker,2025-03-14 What if the scariest presence wasn t what you saw but what you became In Presence director Steven Soderbergh redefines the supernatural thriller by taking audiences on an immersive journey through the eyes of a ghost This groundbreaking film places viewers inside the perspective of an unseen entity watching over a grieving family subtly influencing events and revealing haunting truths about loss trauma and the unseen forces that bind us But is the presence a protector or a tormentor And how does its existence alter the fate of those it lingers around This in depth review unpacks the film s bold storytelling its unique cinematography and the chilling themes that blur the lines between psychological horror and supernatural suspense Whether you re a cinephile a horror enthusiast or simply looking for a fresh take on ghost stories this analysis offers a deeper understanding of Presence and its place in modern horror cinema Stirring Scenes in Savage Lands James Greenwood,1879 Ghosts, Metaphor, and History in Toni Morrison's Beloved and Gabriel García Márquez's One Hundred Years of Solitude Daniel Erickson,2009-02-15 This study examines the complex relations between the figure of the ghost the textual figure of metaphor and history in Toni Morrison s Beloved and Gabriel Garc a M rquez s One Hundred Years of Solitude The Windsor Magazine ,1896 Curiosities of savage life James Greenwood,1864 Ghosts, Stories, Histories Sladja Blazan,2007 A collection that combines academic reflections on ghost stories from the 17th century to the ghosts in the machine This work associates primary texts with Anglo American narratives even when these belong to the Chinese or African tradition as in the case of the American appropriation of Zhang Yimou s adaptation of Raise the Red Lantern The German Ghost Story as Genre Muriel W. Stiffler,1993 This is the first full length study in almost ninety years on the German ghost story as a literary form In depth examinations of eight of the most outstanding tales in German literature reveal many common characteristics which establish this form as a genre Arresting new interpretations of the works emerge offering a rationale for the value of generic determination in
