		Alannah Miranda Manager Beauty Space Norristown, PA 48075
Salutation	I	Dear Mrs. Miranda,
Opening paragraph	I	I am writing this letter to express my interest in undergoing an apprenticeship with you this summer. Your reputable standing in the community as the go-to hairdresser in our city makes your business the most desirable for me to learn from. I believe that I have developed the necessary skills to appreciate the lessons learned from an apprenticeship with you, and hope to seek further employment upon its end.
Experience & qualifications		In my current position as a student at Forester's Hairdressing Academy, I have taken many courses on hair styling as well as business management and accounting. What I lack in experience, I make up for in technical knowledge gained from my classes and my years of hairdressing practice with my friends and family. I believe that my technical skill and my unending willingness to learn in a practical environment will allow me to proactively learn from this apprenticeship experience with you and your business.
		I believe that I am a fast learner and can apply what I learn quickly. As evidenced by my resume, my track record of consistently high grades and extensive extracurricular involvement lend a hand to my strong position as a candidate for this apprenticeship. I believe that my interpersonal communication and detail-focused personality will both support and contribute to your business' development.
Closing paragraph	I	Thank you for your time and consideration. I am happy to supply further information regarding my qualifications and experience, should they be required. I look forward to meeting face to face to discuss this opportunity soon.
Sign-off	I	Sincerely, Leon Crawford

Musicking TikTok Juan Bermúdez, 2024-12-12 This ethnographic work about TikTok's musicking in a glocal Austrian context complements and builds upon ethnomusicological assumptions, theories and methods for the study of musical practices in digital spaces. An overview of elements that make up TikTok's interface as well as the technical performative possibilities that it allows, this book introduces a general categorization of existing performance types and how TikTokers appropriate the platform to make their music. It illustrates how some TikTokers became aware of and began using TikTok and it reviews some of the different strategies TikTokers apply to learn how to use the application and successfully develop their performances. Bermúdez explores how performers move from being ordinary users to becoming TikTokers, developing and performing an identity he calls TikTok Persona. Moreover, he discusses how some TikTok practices can and have occurred across multiple interconnected platforms and he examines how localities are articulated and negotiated in these contexts. Bermúdez argues for an understanding of musicking as a multimedia practice that different actors create and experience individually in everyday synchronous and asynchronous physical and digital situations. The so-called TikTokers create a sense of identity and community through their performances. This study suggests that a digital performance can be aside from a representation of reality, an integral part of it, serving as a fundamental space for constructing and performing identity.
