2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Global Guyana Oneka LaBennett, 2024-04-16 Shortlisted 2025 OCM Bocas Prize for Caribbean Literature Nonfiction Exposes the global threat of environmental catastrophe and the forms of erasure that structure Caribbean women's lives in the overlooked nation of Guyana Previously ranked among the hemisphere's poorest countries Guyana is becoming a global leader in per capita oil production a shift which promises to profoundly transform the nation This sea change presents a unique opportunity to dissect both the environmental impacts of modern world resource extraction and the obscured yet damaging ways in which intersectional race and gender formations circumscribe Caribbean women's lives Drawing from archival research and oral history and examining mass mediated flashpoints across the African and Indian diasporas including Rihanna's sonic routes ethnic conflict reportage HBO's Lovecraft Country and Netflix's Indian Matchmaking Global Guyana repositions this marginalized nation as a nexus of social and economic activity which drives popular culture and ideas about sexuality while reshaping the geopolitical and literal topography of the Caribbean region Oneka LaBennett employs the powerful analytic of the pointer broom to disentangle the symbiotic relationship between Guyanese women's gendered labor and global racial capitalism She illuminates how both oil extraction and sand export are implicated in a well established practice of pillaging the Caribbean's natural resources while masking the ecological consequences that disproportionately affect women and children Global Guyana uncovers how ecological erosion and gendered violence are entrenched in extractive industries emanating from this often effaced but pivotal country Sounding the alarm on the portentous repercussions that ambitious development spells out for the nation's people and its geographical terrain LaBennett issues a warning for all of us about the looming threat of global environmental calamity The Book of Harry: A Celebration of Harry Styles Charlotte McLaren, 2021-08-19 A celebration of Harry Styles we Adore You The Cinema of Social Death Tryon P. Woods, 2025-11-13 In The Cinema of Social Death Blackhood At Large Tryon P Woods argues that cinematic counter narratives to society's deep seated racist culture while claiming to advance racial justice fail to escape the trappings of anti blackness and instead function to disguise a parasitic and antagonistic relationship toward blackness rather than expose how the paradigm works Through analyses of a selection of purportedly anti racist narratives from documentarian Liz Garbus and a trio of independent black filmmakers Tanya Hamilton Haile Gerima and Spike Lee Woods demonstrates the precarious nature of telling stories of racial justice without falling into the contradictory trap of imposing antiblack notions of gender and sexuality Contrary to the prevalent sentiment that these visual narratives disrupt and unravel the suffering lack and pathology attached to blackness Woods posits that the films being examined are detrimental to black liberation and thus to human deliverance As such this book's chief concern is in how our efforts to unravel the problems of the world become part of the problem In the process Woods highlights the trap of visual culture and its racial discourse as it obfuscates the modern era's assault on human reciprocity and connection
