Mastering the World: The Story of Liu Bang Gao Yuan, Liu Bang can be regarded as a master among emperors For Li Shimin and Zhu Yuanzhang who were also emperors held him in high esteem Liu Bang grew up in the marketplace He was neither proficient in writing as a literati nor good at fighting as a warrior However under his leadership he gradually defeated many prominent figures overthrew Xiang Yu and brought peace to the whole country Later through the hands of others he got rid of Han Xin eliminating potential threats It was he who founded the great Han Empire that lasted for four hundred years Both Emperor Taizong Li Shimin of the Tang Dynasty and Emperor Taizu Zhu Yuanzhang of the Ming Dynasty who had planned and conquered the country gave him extremely high praise Even Mao Zedong commented that Liu Bang was a brilliant statesman and a very formidable one among the feudal emperors

Crude World: The Violent Twilight of Oil Peter Maass, 2009-10-01 Oil makes the world work It has become so vital that even a small reduction in output can cause economic chaos We know that our reliance on oil is potentially disastrous but what we are less clear about is the terrible damage it inflicts on the countries that produce it The people who should benefit most from the riches of oil are quite often harmed by it Crude World offers a passionate look at some of the most awful places in the world the violent repressive and polluted countries where oil is extracted Peter Maass follows the journey of oil and shows how the substance sullies so much of what it touches poisoning land and rivers promoting political bloodshed and creating corruption on a staggering scale We tend to gauge the price of oil by its cost at the petrol station or its role in global warming but Maass vividly shows an altogether different price paid by people who live in countries that are rich in petroleum but not wealth or freedom He shows how the profits of oil benefit mainly the companies and governments that receive royalty cheques and will do more or less anything to sustain the flow of money From Nigerian fishermen to Moscow oligarchs from American generals in Iraq to environmentalists in Ecuador from British executives to Saudi jihadists Peter Maass connects the dots and shows how our relationship to oil is so deadly Crude World is a magnificent piece of reportage that reveals the price others pay for the lives we lead

Aršāma and his World: The Bodleian Letters in Context Christopher J. Tuplin, John Ma, 2020-12-29 During the Second World War the Bodleian Library in Oxford acquired a set of Aramaic letters eight sealings and the two leather bags in which the sealed letters were once stored The letters concern the affairs of Ar ma satrap of Egypt in the later fifth century Taken with other material associated with him mostly in Aramaic Demotic Egyptian and Akkadian they illuminate the Achaemenid world of which Ar ma was a privileged member and evoke a wide range of social economic cultural organizational and political perspectives from multi lingual communication storage and disbursement of resources and satrapal remuneration to cross regional ethnic movement long distance travel religious practice and iconographic projection of ideological messages Particular highlights include a travel authorization the only example of something implicit in numerous Persepolis documents texts about the religious life of the Judean garrison at Elephantine Ar ma s magnificent seal a masterpiece of Achaemenid glyptic inherited from a son of Darius I and echoes of temporary disturbances to Persian management of Egypt But what is also impressive is the underlying sense of systematic coherence founded on and expressed in the use of formal even formalized written communication as a means of control The Ar ma dossier is not alone in evoking that sense but its size variety and focus upon a single individual give it a unique quality Though this material has not been hidden from view it has been insufficiently explored it is the purpose of the three volumes of Ar ma and his World The Bodleian Letters in Context to provide the fullest presentation and historical contextualization of this extraordinary cache yet attempted Volume I presents and translates the letters alongside a detailed line by line commentary while Volume II reconstructs the two seals that made the clay bullae that sealed the letters with special attention to Ar ma s magnificent heirloom seal Volume III comprises a series of thematic essays which further explore the administrative economic military ideological religious and artistic environment to which Ar ma and the letters belonged
