Recasting The Past:

Recasting History Monica MacDonald, 2019-06-15 Since 1952 CBC television has played a unique role as the primary mass media purveyor of Canadian history Yet until now there have been no comprehensive accounts of Canadian history on television Monica MacDonald takes us behind the scenes of the major documentaries and docudramas broadcast on the CBC including in Explorations 1956 64 and the series Images of Canada 1972 76 The National Dream 1974 The Valour and the Horror 1992 and Canada A People's History 2000 02 Drawing on a wide range of sources MacDonald explores how producers struggled to represent the Canadian past under a range of external and internal pressures Despite dramatic shifts in the writing of history over this period she determines that television themes and interpretations largely remained the same The greater change was in the production and presentation particularly in the role of professional historians as journalists emerged not only as the new producers of Canadian history on CBC television but also as the new content authorities A critique of public history through the lens of political economy Recasting History reveals the conflicts compromises and controversies that have shaped the CBC version of the Canadian past

Recasting the Past: The Art of Chinese Bronzes, 1100-1900 Pengliang Lu, 2025-02-28 Bronze vessels were the ultimate emblems of power in ancient China Beginning in the twelfth century the rediscovery of ancient bronzes as evidence of an earlier golden age led to a revival of bronze casting This publication is the first comprehensive study of these later Chinese bronzes in archaic styles which were commissioned by emperors and officials from the twelfth through the nineteenth centuries to assert political legitimacy and alignment with traditional values Redressing the misconception that these works were mere imitations of the ancient vessels they emulated Recasting the Past demonstrates that they were in fact creative reinterpretations of antique shapes and decorative motifs that were fundamentally new creations with their own aesthetic and functional character Featuring nearly two hundred objects many never before published including ceremonial bells incense burners flower vases ritual vessels and writing utensils Pengliang Lu explores their cultural and political significance from the Song dynasty through the Qing dynasty and shows their enormous influence on Chinese art and culture
