Reelpolitik II Beverly Merrill Kelley, 2004-02-16 Reelpolitik II moves past typical left right political distinctions to examine political ideologies cycling through U S history during the 50s and 60s These eight Cold War movies especially equipped the moviegoer with a unique vantage point to scrutinize the arms race the Red Scare the Korean Conflict and the Vietnam War They also helped audiences to observe the way film functions as a purveyor of American mythology a megaphone to shout political messages a metaphorical route to the emotions a flattering mirror an unflattering microscope and a magic carpet ride back to the future Film is Like a Battleground Marsha Gordon, 2017-01-04 Film is Like a Battleground Sam Fuller's War Movies is the first book to focus on the genre that best defined the American director's career the war film It draws on previously unexplored archival materials such as Fuller's Federal Bureau of Investigation files and WWII era 16mm films to explore the director's lifelong interest in making challenging thought provoking and often politically dangerous movies about war After establishing the roots of Fuller's cinematographic schooling in the trenches during World War II including careful consideration of his 16mm footage of a Nazi camp at the end of that war Film is Like a Battleground explores Fuller's first forays into hot war representation in Hollywood with the pioneering Korean conflict films The Steel Helmet 1951 and Fixed Bayonets 1951 This pair of films introduced Fuller to his first run ins with the American political machine when they triggered both FBI and Department of Defense investigations into his political sympathies and affiliations Fuller's cold war films Pickup on South Street 1953 and though it veers into hot war territory Hell and High Water 1954 are Fuller's responses to the political pressures he had now personally experienced and resented A chapter on Fuller's representation of pre American invasion Vietnam in China Gate 1957 alongside his unrealized Vietnam war screenplay The Rifle ca late 1960s illustrates the degree to which Fuller's representation of war and nation shifted even as he continued to probe war's impossible contradictions Film is Like a Battleground would be incomplete without a thorough exploration of the films depicting the war Fuller personally experienced and spent a lifetime contemplating WWII Verboten 1959 Merrill's Marauder's 1962 and The Big Red One 1980 demonstrate Fuller's representation of a morally justifiable war Fuller's 1959 CBS television pilot Dogface offers a glimpse at one of Fuller's failed attempts to bring his WWII story into American living rooms The book concludes with a chapter about a documentary film made late in the director's life that returns Fuller to the actual site of the Nazi's Falkenau camp at which he discusses his experiences there and that powerful unforgettable footage he shot in the spring of 1945 A Genealogical Record of Samuel Pond and His Descendants Daniel Streater Pond, 1875 Samuel Pond married Sarah Ware 14 November 1642 in Windsor Connecticut They had four known children Isaac Samuel Nathaniel and Sarah He died in 1654 Descendants and relatives lived mainly in Connecticut New York Vermont Ohio and Illinois The Early Records of the Town of Dedham, Massachusetts Dedham (Mass.), 1899 Report of the Inspectors of Penitentiaries for the Fiscal Year Ended March 31 ... Canada.
