Sammlung Architektonischer Entwürfe Collection Of Architectural Designs:

Collection of architectural designs Karl Friedrich Schinkel, 1981 Karl Friedrich Schinkel: 2 Volume Set Klaus Jan Philipp, Karl Friedrich Schinkel, 2000 Text in English and German 2 Books in slipcase Karl Friedrich Schinkel called his designs for a palace on the Acropolis in Athens and for Orianda Castle in the Crimea a beautiful dream They date from 1834 and 1838 and were Schinkel's last major projects in which he presented his ideal of architecture in brilliant drawings and watercolours as if in a last will and testament Both the formal language of neo Classical architecture and the quality of presentation are brought to a level here that can scarcely be surpassed It is clear how highly Schinkel himself esteemed these two unrealized designs from the fact that he had them printed as coloured lithographs in his publication Werke der höheren Baukunst für die Ausführung erfunden Potsdam 1840 to 1942 These lithographs are reprinted in a large format for the first time here complemented by the no less spectacular lithographs of the two Pliny villas Tusculum and Laurentinum These works which represent a high point in the long story of the reconstruction of the two villas that have come down to us only in literature also show Schinkel's impressive ability to demonstrate and convey his architectural ideas He is profoundly concerned both in the reconstructions of the Pliny villas and in the designs for the royal palace on the Acropolis and Orianda Castle to be archaeologically precise and to fulfil prescribed building programmes but also to plumb the possibilities of architecture beyond mere utility For the Acropolis palace project he had his eye mainly on the way in which the new building would interact with the surviving remains of the Propylaea and the Parthenon In the Orianda project it is a glazed observation pavilion in the form of a temple that expresses architecture's perception of itself more clearly than perhaps ever before The University of Michigan Library Newsletter, 1981 Collection of architectural designs Karl Friedrich Schinkel, 1981 Architektur-Präsenz Wolfgang Büchel, 2001 Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.).
