

The background of the book cover is a purple-tinted photograph of an opera house. The view is from the audience, looking towards the stage. The stage is framed by a large, ornate archway. On the stage, there are several figures, possibly performers, and a large, dark, draped object, possibly a curtain or a large prop. The audience is visible in the foreground, seated in rows. The overall tone is historical and dramatic.

San Francisco's Lost Landmarks James R. Smith, 2005 With long forgotten stories and evocative photographs San Francisco's Lost Landmarks showcases the once familiar sites that have faded into dim memories and hazy legends Not just a list of places facts and dates this pictorial history shows why San Francisco has been a legendary travel destination and one of the world's premier places to live and work for more than one hundred and fifty years It not only tells of the lost landmarks but also dishes up the flavour of what it was like to experience these past treasures
