Sea Power Guide For The 21st Century:

Seapower Geoffrey Till, 2004 At the beginning of the 21st century much has remained the same in naval terms but much has changed Geoffrey Till's study is an exploration of how change will impact upon the world's navies Seapower Geoffrey Till, 2009-03-06 This revised updated and expanded new edition of Geoffrey Till's acclaimed textbook provides an invaluable guide for anyone interested in the changing and crucial role of seapower in the twenty first century Planning for War at Sea Evan Wilson, Paul M. Kennedy, 2025-02-04 How have navies contemplated possible enemies How did they learn or fail to learn once operations began How does this analysis inform today's planning for future conflict These questions guide the noted historians and naval strategists who contributed to Planning for War at Sea A central theme is the regular failure of navies best laid plans Covering four centuries of naval warfare the chapters illustrate the challenges all navies faced when considering possible enemies Even during the Age of Sail ships were among the most expensive and long term national endeavors Navies therefore planned well in advance for future wars usually without knowing their adversaries or how they would fight them at sea Building a capable navy requires sustained investment in naval infrastructure long before the fighting starts In the final chapters naval strategists expand on this historical analysis to address how effectively or ineffectively today's three leading navies Russia China and the United States have configured themselves during the post Cold War era in preparing for future great power conflict This collection is an important work for strategists scholars and policymakers Indian Naval Strategy in the Twenty-first Century James R. Holmes, Andrew C. Winner, Toshi Yoshihara, 2009-04-02 This is the first academic study of India's emerging maritime strategy and offers a systematic analysis of the interplay between Western military thought and Indian maritime traditions By a quirk of historical fate Europe embarked on its Age of Discovery just as the main Asian powers were renouncing the sea ushering in centuries of Western dominance In the 21st century however Asian states are once again resuming a naval focus with both China and India dedicating some of their new found wealth to building powerful navies and coast guards and drawing up maritime strategies to govern the use of these forces The United States like the British Empire before it is attempting to manage these rising sea powers while preserving its maritime primacy This book probes how India looks at the sea what kind of strategy and seagoing forces New Delhi may craft in the coming years and how Indian leaders may use these forces It examines the material dimension but its major premise is that navies represent a physical expression of a society's history philosophical traditions and culture This book then ventures a comprehensive appraisal of Indian maritime strategy This book will be of interest to students of sea power strategic studies Indian politics and Asian Studies in general James R Holmes is an Associate Professor of Strategy at the U S Naval War College and a former U S Navy surface warfare officer Toshi Yoshihara is an Associate Professor in the Strategy and Policy Department at the Naval War College Andrew C Winner is Professor in the Strategic Research Department at the U S Naval War College Naval Constabulary Operations and Fisheries
