Sea Stories Of The Inside Passage:

At Home Afloat Nancy Pagh, 2001 Considering accounts written by Northwest Coast marine tourists between 1861 and 1990 Nancy Pagh examines the ways that gender influences the roles women play at sea the spaces they occupy on boats and the language they use to describe their experiences their natural surroundings and their contact with Native peoples Unique features of this book include its interdisciplinary nature and its combination of scholarly information and a style that general readers will appreciate The text is engaging but also serves to make fresh and relevant links between scholarship in diverse areas of inquiry for example Western Canadian and American history feminist geography post colonial theory and women and environments Deep Sea Stories from the Thermopylae Club Ursula Jupp, Thermopylae Club, 1971 Motorboating - ND
