Searchers A True Story:

The Searchers Glenn Frankel, 2013-02-19 New York Times Bestseller Named one of the best books of the year by Parade The Guardian Kirkus Library Journal The true story behind the classic Western The Searchers by Pulitzer Prize winning writer Glenn Frankel that the New York Times calls A vivid revelatory account of John Ford's 1956 masterpiece In 1836 in East Texas nine year old Cynthia Ann Parker was kidnapped by Comanches She was raised by the tribe and eventually became the wife of a warrior Twenty four years after her capture she was reclaimed by the U S cavalry and Texas Rangers and restored to her white family to die in misery and obscurity Cynthia Ann's story has been told and re told over generations to become a foundational American tale The myth gave rise to operas and one act plays and in the 1950s to a novel by Alan LeMay which would be adapted into one of Hollywood's most legendary films The Searchers The Biggest Roughest Toughest and Most Beautiful Picture Ever Made directed by John Ford and starring John Wayne Glenn Frankel beginning in Hollywood and then returning to the origins of the story creates a rich and nuanced anatomy of a timeless film and a quintessentially American myth The dominant story that has emerged departs dramatically from documented history it is of the inevitable triumph of white civilization underpinned by anxiety about the sully of white women by savages What makes John Ford's film so powerful and so important Frankel argues is that it both upholds that myth and undermines it baring the ambiguities surrounding race sexuality and violence in the settling of the West and the making of America Feminist Praxis against U.S. Militarism Wonhee Anne Joh, Nami Kim, 2019-12-04 Feminist Praxis against U S Militarism provides critical feminist and womanist analyses of U S militarism that challenge the ongoing U S neoliberal military industrial complex and its multivalent violence that destroys people's lives especially women and other vulnerable populations It highlights the intentional critique of U S militarism from feminist womanist perspectives that seek to show the ways in which gender race ethnicity sexuality and violence intersect to threaten women's lives especially women of color's lives and the broader environment upon which women's lives are dependent Most of all this volume challenges the readers to understand the U S as the warfare counterterror carceral state and its devastating effects on the everyday lives of women especially women of color locally nationally and globally This volume also helps readers understand the racialized gendered impacts of U S militarism in conjunction with the ongoing global economies of dispossession and militarized violence across the borders of nation states Interrogating U S military interventions in other countries can show how the U S War on Terror directly affects U S domestic affairs and daily lives in the United States John Ford Scott Eyman, Paul Duncan, 2004 This text takes a critical look at the films of John Ford including Stagecoach The Fugitive and The Quiet Man Transcultural Screenwriting Carmen Sofia Brenes, Patrick Cattrysse, Margaret McVeigh, 2017-05-11 The world in which we live and work today has created new working conditions where storytellers screenwriters and filmmakers collaborate with colleagues from other countries and cultures This involves new challenges regarding the practice of transcultural screenwriting and the study of writing screenplays in a multi cultural environment Globalisation and its imperatives have seen the film co production emerge as a means of sharing production costs and creating stories that reach transnational audiences Transcultural Screenwriting Telling Stories for a Global World provides an interdisciplinary approach to the study of screenwriting as a creative process by integrating the fields of film and TV production studies screenwriting studies narrative studies rhetorics transnational cinema studies and intercultural communication studies The book applies the emerging theoretical lens of transcultural studies to open new perspectives in the debate around notions of transnationalism imperialism and globalisation particularly in the screenwriting context and to build stronger links across academic disciplines This volume combines methods for studying as well as methods for doing It draws on case studies and testimonials from writers from all over the globe including South America Europe and Asia Transcultural Screenwriting Telling Stories for a Global World is characterised by its scope broad relevance and emphasis on key aspects of screenwriting in an international environment Nicholas Ray John Francis Kreidl,1977

Database Searcher ,1993 Vera Miles Christopher McKittrick,2025-03-25 Captivating talented and beautiful Vera Miles was destined for fame Within a few years of making her way to Hollywood in 1949 she starred in such films as The Rose Bowl Story 1952 Tarzan s Hidden Jungle 1955 and Wichita 1955 Her frequent television performances so enthralled Alfred Hitchcock that he chose her to be Grace Kelly s successor for roles in The Wrong Man 1956 and the iconic film Psycho 1960 She also starred in John Ford s The Searchers 1956 and The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance 1962 Miles s illustrious film and television career spanned nearly fifty years in Hollywood and yet she is still considered one of the most unsung film actresses of her era Vera Miles The Hitchcock Blonde Who Got Away is the first full length biography of the talented performer s life and extensive body of work Integrating historical interviews and archival materials author Christopher McKittrick reveals the struggles Miles faced as a working mother in the 1950s and 1960s and why she was compelled to step away from the lead role in Vertigo a choice that irrevocably sundered her relationship with Hitchcock Yet Miles would go on to appear in nearly two hundred television shows including The Twilight Zone The Fugitive Ironside and The Virginian as well as numerous Disney films She would work with some of the most talented actors in Hollywood John Wayne Bob Hope and James Stewart among them and would receive a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame By highlighting Miles as the lead in her own story McKittrick amplifies the voice of this remarkable and prolific actress who was far more than just a footnote in Hitchcock s film legacy The Online Searcher Ethel Auster,1990 Online searching is one of the fastest growing services in libraries While such services represent great potential for expanding reference services they also present new and different service issues librarians must deal with This collection of 30 articles focuses on both librarians and end users as searchers The contributions cover education and training the online interview information search tactics optical disc systems and applications of artificial intelligence ethics quality control legal aspects future directions for online searching and much more
