California Rising Ethan Rarick, 2006-04-26 Edmund G Pat Brown has long been considered one of the two or three most effective governors of California Thanks to this exhaustively researched and vividly written study by Ethan Rarick we can now grasp the true strength and charisma of this extraordinary governor and the highpoint of public value and performance he orchestrated in the creation of contemporary California A seasoned reporter Rarick left everything behind to research and write this book He made the right decision Kevin Starr University Professor of History University of Southern California This is an impressive and important work exhaustively researched elegantly written It s not only the biography of the central figure in modern California history Governor Pat Brown but the story of a crucial era in California and its place in the nation s imagination California Rising is a major document in our understanding of the man and the place he helped make Peter Schrag former editorial page editor of the Sacramento Bee and author of Paradise Lost California s Experience America s Future Ethan Rarick has written a shrewd and lively account of the life of Pat Brown California s most constructive governor in the last half century What a pleasant way to learn about the history of the golden state during the key period in which state government was confronted with the economic and social challenges of rapid modernization A very impressive book Nelson W Polsby Heller Professor of Political Science University of California Berkeley An important and enjoyable book Bruce Cain coeditor of Voting at the Political Fault Line Ethan Rarick s narrative of the life of Pat Brown is a fascinating look at the maturation of a political animal We follow closely as Brown gladhands his way up California s political ladder and becomes his state s most progressive governor In this meticulous study Rarick fleshes out Brown s battles with Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan throughout the 1960s California Rising profits from Rarick s broad understanding of California and his constructive use of Brown s personal notes and correspondence Douglas Brinkley author of Tour of Duty John Kerry and the Vietnam War

Remembering Galesburg Tom Wilson, 2009-04-01 Galesburg Illinois has made quite a name for itself since the first settlers arrived in 1836 It has witnessed the comings and goings of fifteen United States presidents listened to Louis Satchmo Armstrong seen the birth of an elephant and served as home of the man who brought the dandelion to America Lifetime resident and city historian Tom Wilson captures the true spirit of the town through this charming collection of articles from his column Tracking History Nuances and details from the excitement of the Lincoln Douglas debates to the frustrations of stalemate college basketball make Remembering Galesburg a sparkling depiction of this towns personality

The Branding Iron ,1990 Lost at Guadalcanal John J. Domagalski, 2014-01-10 The dramatic account of two American warships in the South Pacific this book follows the USS Astoria CA 34 and USS Chicago CA 29 during the late summer of 1942 when both participated in the early days of the critical battle for Guadalcanal Drawing on a variety of firsthand accounts some previously unpublished the book tells the story from the perspective of the men aboard each ship transporting readers inside the gun turrets behind the lookout binoculars and below deck as the battle rages Individual stories of heroism sacrifice and survival unfold as both vessels meet their fates in the South Pacific Western Places ,1992 Beyond Evidence Julia Viebach,Dagmar Hovestädt,Ulrike Lühe,2022-02-23 Drawing on conceptual debates in transitional justice and critical archival studies as well as empirical cases from various countries around the world the contributions in this book critically examine how archives are produced by and used in transitional justice processes such as tribunals truth commissions and remembrance processes This edited volume provides conceptual critiques of the transitional justice paradigm and innovations in providing a new lens on archival practices in transitional justice In doing so it offers in depth analyses of the relationship between archives and transitional justice in France Colombia Rwanda South Africa and Northern Ireland it highlights truth commission and international court archives as much as personal collections and oral histories The authors bring critical archival studies into dialogue with transitional justice discourses to highlight the activism and emancipatory potential but also the possibilities of injustices inherent in archives and archival practice Crucially the book goes beyond merely highlighting the evidentiary value of archives by linking them to a multitude of transitional justice processes goals and ideals including remembrance processes witnessing reconciliation non recurrence and various struggles against injustices and prevalent violence This collection contributes to and expands our understanding of archives in transitional justice and critically questions core assumptions being made about the inherently positive contributions archives and records make to dealing with a violent past The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The International Journal of Human Rights Remembering Cable Street Nadia Valman,2000 This collection presents research on the 1939 confrontation between the police fascists and anti fascists in London s Jewish neighbourhood and its impact on British society The collection includes chapters on the political social and cultural history of Cable Street looking at the diversity of Jewish responses in London and Manchester fascist perceptions and representations of Cable Street the role of gender and the cultural memory of the Battle of Cable Street The Hill ,1996 The Capitol newspaper Coming Of Age In The Middle East Trevor Mostyn,2016-05-06 First published in 1987 A simple record of the author s travels in the Middle East over a period of twenty years it is intended faithfully to reflect the region as a catalyst to the development of his own life from carefree youth to maturity and marriage Home at Last Josie Avery,Grace Hall McEntee,2001 What is it like to live on an island without a bridge For some the commute over Narragansett Bay by ferry is a daily reunion with island neighbors For others of us piloting a small boat challenges our skills and surprises us with unexpected adventure Separation from daily life on the mainland breeds a unique culture Here on Prudence Island we have our own lingo and our island ways Our language is sprinkled with references to wind direction temperature tides and time We savor night walks on the beach a run on a dirt road and stopping to talk to a turtle Kids and adults build relationships unique friendships that leap barriers that ordinarily separate us from those who might become our friends Home at Last emanates from Prudence Island an island without a bridge the place where we live The Humanitarian Review ,1910 The Cognitive Neurosciences, fifth edition Michael S. Gazzaniga, George R. Mangun, 2014-10-24 The fifth edition of a work that defines the field of cognitive neuroscience with entirely new material that reflects recent advances in the field Each edition of this classic reference has proved to be a benchmark in the developing field of cognitive neuroscience The fifth edition of The Cognitive Neurosciences continues to chart new directions in the study of the biological underpinnings of complex cognition the relationship between the structural and physiological mechanisms of the nervous system and the psychological reality of the mind It offers entirely new material reflecting recent advances in the field Many of the developments in cognitive neuroscience have been shaped by the introduction of novel tools and methodologies and a new section is devoted to methods that promise to guide the field into the future from sophisticated models of causality in brain function to the application of network theory to massive data sets Another new section treats neuroscience and society considering some of the moral and political quandaries posed by current neuroscientific methods Other sections describe among other things new research that draws on developmental imaging to study the changing structure and function of the brain over the lifespan progress in establishing increasingly precise models of memory research that confirms the study of emotion and social cognition as a core area in cognitive neuroscience and new findings that cast doubt on the so called neural correlates of consciousness The Mining West Richard E. Lingenfelter, 2003 This two volume set cites books pamphlets maps music directories and other published materials excluding materials from technical and popular magazines and newspapers on the history of mining in the American and Canadian West Topics covered include prospecting mining rushes and camps and mining finance labor technology law literature and lore The initial portion provides general information on mining and metallurgical technology The subsequent regional sections are subdivided into refined historical studies raw materials fictional and poetic treatments and bibliographical guides to further materials Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Searchlight Remembered Arda M. The Top Books of the Year Searchlight Remembered The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Searchlight Remembered : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Searchlight Remembered : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Searchlight Remembered : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
