Plats du Jour William Black, 2011-10-31

There is more than a slight malaise in the air these days about French food and cooking. While the rest of the world delights in the intricacies of molecular gastronomy and even Britain is revelling in a culinary renaissance in France, the years of worship at the temple of the great god Michelin seem to have blinded them to change and evolution. Why is this? What is it about the French that causes them to be so blinkered about their food? Plats du Jour is an attempt to answer that question as William Black explores the highways and byways of French cooking. Taking as his starting point the great tradition of French food, William tackles years of received wisdom and parochial food snobbery head on, though with his mind and his mouth firmly open. He eats t de veau and fried cow s udder with his French wife s family near Orl ans. He samples the dubious and illegal delights of ortolan in the south west and has the most painfully disappointing gastronomic experience of his life. He combs the beaches of Brittany for seafood and is chased away from a festival by an enraged Basque villager. His dedication to the culinary cause knows few bounds. Plats du Jour is a book which the French aren t going to like very much. That said, it s a highly entertaining and irreverent look at the world s greatest culinary tradition which will be required reading for anyone with an interest in food and cooking.

Valvona & Crolla Mary Contini, Philip Contini, 2012-06-30. Valvona Crolla has been described as the Sistine chapel of continental delis. Founded in 1934 by the Continis ancestors, the Italian shop and restaurant is legendary in food circles for its excellent food and drink. Now co owners Mary, author of the bestselling Dear Francesca and co author of the Easy Peasy cooking series, presents 200 delicious and authentic recipes. Organised season by season, the book offers a year of sumptuous delights from around the country of her heritage together with recommendations for wines to match them. Starting with the festive flavours of winter such as a creamy chestnut soup with smoked pancetta, moving on to the best of spring s vegetables with a broad bean and spinach frittata, fresh seafood dishes in the summer and finishing with the truffles, olive pressings and slow cooked casseroles of the autumn, this beautifully written and evocatively photographed book adds up to a food diary of personal stories, history, anecdotes and recipes, all imbued with the warmth and local knowledge that only a true Italian family passionate about food can deliver.
