Seasonal Tasks For The Australian Garden:

Gardens for All Seasons Mary Horsfall, 2012-10-01 Gardens for All Seasons is a gardening lifestyle book by bestselling author Mary Horsfall celebrating the role of gardens in our lives and advising on the timing of jobs in the gardening year throughout Australia. Monthly chapters include topics such as planning bushfire preparation, watering, pot plant care, mulching, weeding, fertilising, pruning, propagating, pest control, what to plant for different climate zones, and what garden venues and events to visit. Mary details her own gardening year including jobs done, fruits and vegetables harvested, food cooked based on the harvest, what was in flower, and wildlife observations all on a month by month basis. Each chapter includes a special topic of the month such as fun for kids in the garden, biodiversity, manipulating microclimate, and fragrance, and first aid. Covering both edible and decorative gardens and including colour photographs as well as some of Mary's own recipes, Gardens for All Seasons is sure to please all types of gardeners. Community Gardening as Social Action Claire

Nettle, 2016-05-23 There has been a resurgence of community gardening over the past decade with a wide range of actors seeking to get involved from health agencies aiming to increase fruit and vegetable consumption to radical social movements searching for symbols of non-capitalist ways of relating and occupying space. Community gardens have become a focal point for local activism in which people are working to contribute to food security, question the erosion of public space, conserve and improve urban environments, develop technologies of sustainable food production, foster community engagement, and create neighbourhood solidarity. Drawing on in-depth case studies and social movement theory, Claire Nettle provides a new empirical and theoretical understanding of community gardening as a site of collective social action. This provides not only a more nuanced and complete understanding of community gardening but also highlights its potential challenges to notions of activism, community, democracy, and culture. Australian Gardens Nerine Chisholm, 1949 The Practical Australian

Gardener Peter Cundall, 1989 The Australian Garden Lover, 1962 Exposing Lifestyle Television Gareth Palmer, 2016-04-15 In the last decade, lifestyle television has become one of the most dominant television genres with certain shows now global brands with formats exploited by producers all over the world. What unites these programmes is their belief that the human subject has a flexible, malleable identity that can be changed within television-friendly frameworks. In contrast to the talk shows of the eighties and nineties where modest transformation was discussed as an ideal, advances in technology combined with changing tastes and demands of viewers have created an appetite for dramatic transformations. This volume presents case studies from across the lifestyle genre considering a variety of themes but with a shared understanding of the self as an evolving project driven by enterprise. Written by an international team of scholars, the collection will appeal to sociologists of culture and consumption as well as to scholars of media studies and media production throughout the world.

Pacific Islands Guestworkers in Australia Kirstie Petrou, John Connell, 2022-12-01 This is the first book to examine the contemporary seasonal migration of Pacific islanders to Australia through the Seasonal Worker Programme (SWP). It reflects on this new age of guestwork from a broad social economic political and cultural perspective in both source countries and destinations In so doing it offers a critical perspective on different phases of managed labour migration from nineteenth century practices of blackbirding to the present day This book examines why and how guestworker policies and programmes have developed and the impact this has had in Australia and for the people villages and islands of the sending states It particularly focuses on Vanuatu the main source of labour and draws upon studies based in Australia Vanuatu and other Pacific Island countries The book therefore traces new patterns of migration with intriguing economic and social consequences that are restructuring parts of rural and regional Australia in response to labour demands from agriculture and evolving regional geopolitics
